

FIRE ON AMERICANS

CEREMONY MARKED BY SPLENDOR

Funeral Car Bearing Remains of Late Japanese Emperor Passes Through Streets

Casket Starts on Its Journey Following Impressive Military Rites

TOKIO, Sept. 13.—The second part of the ceremonies in connection with the funeral of the late Mutsuhito, Emperor of Japan, took place tonight when the casket containing the body started on its journey to Aoyama, whence it will be taken to Monoyama for burial.

Imposing as had been the ceremonial attended by the great dignitaries in the palace earlier in the day, when the funeral service serving to emphasize the contrast between the ancient Shinto rites and the twentieth century militarism was conducted, the passage of the funeral car through the streets of the capital tonight was even more impressive. Hundreds of thousands stood for hours in absolute silence along the route the coffin passed.

The streets and boulevards were brilliantly lighted, and the lights were placed large sacred trees and at frequent intervals black and white cloth covered poles, surmounted by wreaths of evergreens, had been erected.

At 7 o'clock in the evening those who were to take part in the procession.

TRAPPED IN MUD; NEAR DEATH

Tide Is Lapping Against Man's Face When He Is Saved From Drowning

Youth Ties Rope Under Semi-conscious Man's Arms and Tows Him Ashore

ALAMEDA, Sept. 13.—With his feet and legs so firmly imbedded in the deep ooze that he could not free himself, and exhausted from a desperate struggle to gain the shore, William Elwitz was rescued from San Leandro bay late last night after the tide had risen above his shoulders and the waves were lapping about his face. The tide had still a foot to rise and Elwitz would undoubtedly have drowned in a few minutes more had not his cries for help finally attracted attention.

Several Liberty and Garfield avenue residents heard Elwitz call. Leonard Hollywood, son of C. B. Hollywood, 1519 Fernside avenue, went to the water's edge to investigate and put out in a skiff. As he reached Elwitz the latter was on the verge of drowning.

Young Hollywood tied a rope under Elwitz's arms and after a struggle succeeded in freeing him from the mud. Elwitz was too exhausted to climb into the boat and Hollywood rowed slowly ashore, dragging the all but unconscious man after him.

Some stimulants were procured from a nearby house and later Elwitz was taken to the Guttenberg house, where hot drinks were given him. He was without clothing, and stated that he had gone swimming at Elmhurst, had waded out to get into deep water, and become confused in the darkness. Elwitz said that he had wandered for several hours in the shallow bay, becoming so weak that when he had nearly reached the Alameda shore his feet became imbedded in the sticky mud he found it impossible to extricate himself.

Elwitz was taken to the Emergency hospital, where he was given treatment by City Physician Hieronymus.

SHAKE-UP IN HEALTH BUREAU

Department to Be Reorganized With Head to Give Full Time to Duties

"Director" to Receive Salary While "Officer" Will Get Honor Only

An ordinance effecting radical reorganization of the city health department was introduced at the session of the city council this morning by Commissioner Fred C. Turner of the department of public health and safety. The ordinance was prepared largely by the civil service board at the instance of Commissioner Turner, as it was recognized that the health department was in great need of a shake-up that would place it on a sound basis. Salaries were unequal and work was unequally apportioned. The whole department was more or less in chaos, as a result of the fact that the old health board failed to organize the department, and the new charter left things in a half-organized condition.

The most significant feature of the reorganization in the health department is the creation of the position of health director—"the city doctor"—creates the position of health officer now held by Dr. E. N. Ewer, but the position is one that is held in connection with a private practice, and the health officer can give only the "left-over" portion of his time to the city.

Under the reorganized plan, the health officer will be made an honorary position, and the man filling it will act largely in a merely advisory capacity. The position of health director, which will be created by the ordinance introduced this morning, will be filled by a man who will give all his time to the service of the city, and who will have general supervision of a bureau of municipal hygiene. The position will carry a salary of from $3000 to $3600 a year.

The need of an experienced and energetic medical man giving all his time to the city has long been felt. There is plenty of work for such officer, according to the ordinance.

NEW CHIEF STARTS SHAKE-UP; POLICE FORCE REORGANIZED

STRICTER RULES WILL GOVERN NIGHT LIFE

Number of Night Sergeants Increased; New Districts Created

Special orders will be issued from the office of Chief of Police Walter J. Petersen tomorrow for radical changes in the police details affecting sergeants and other officers and effecting a reorganization in the methods of patrolling the city in various districts. The reorganization is the first fruit of the appointment of Petersen as chief of police and heralds wider and more comprehensive changes to follow. The shake-up has caused considerable comment among the men.

In connection with the shifting of half a dozen sergeants into different positions Chief Petersen is promulgating new sets of rules. Regulations for the conduct of cafes and saloons, stricter regulation of the "segregated district" of Oakland and general rules in connection with traffic and other like matters are being prepared.

NEW DISTRICTS CREATED. It is significant of the change in the plan of police duty to be effected by Chief Petersen that the skeleton watch of one, two or three sergeants on duty at night will be replaced by having five or six sergeants on active duty on the night watch. The city is to be divided into five districts and each will have its night sergeant, who will be held personally responsible for the condition of his district, for the suppression of gambling, for the cleanliness of the section, the control of traffic and automobile speeders and for the appearance and general conduct of his men.

Chief Petersen plans that each of the night sergeants shall have an adequate detail of men under his charge. The sergeant must know the statutes and the ordinances and the police rules and he will be expected to instruct his men in their duties.

PROMOTIONS ARRANGED. In making the changes several provisional promotions have been made, and these are in strict accordance

MILLION-DOLLAR LEASE ON DOWNTOWN REALTY

A. W. Kirkland Company to Handle Seven-Story Building on Fifteenth Street

A lease of downtown business property involving a total rental of approximately one million dollars, one of the largest transactions of its kind ever reported in Oakland, was completed today in the disposition for thirty years of property on Fifteenth street, near Clay.

A seven-story modern building which is to be erected on the north side of Fifteenth, sixty feet east of Clay, has been leased, by the Robt. Daniel Company to the A. W. Kirkland Company for a term of thirty years at a total rental of $273,600.

The company headed by A. W. Kirkland, of the Sunset Grocery Company, has been organized for the purpose of handling the lease. The grocery concern, it is announced by Kirkland, has no intention of occupying any portion of the new structure. The ground floor of the new structure will be devoted to stores and the upper stories to offices. A safe will probably be installed in the basement. The property, with a frontage of 170 feet on Clay street, is now occupied by a building, which will be removed within two or three months to make room for the modern fireproof steel frame building.

The site is opposite the new city hall and the Capwell Company's new store building. It is also near the corner that will be formed by the extension of Washington street from Fourteenth to San Pablo avenue, and has a value as high as any in the new retail district with the exception of corner property. The corner of Fifteenth and Clay streets sold several months ago for $130,000.

The lease was consummated through the agency of the Realty Bonds and Finance Company, of which R. W. Kittling is manager.

One Killed, 16 Hurt When Car Overturns

Electric Coach Strikes Curve at High Speed and Leaps Off Track.

VENICE, Cal., Sept. 13.—One man lost his life and 16 others were more or less seriously injured early today when a suburban electric car turned over at Venice, while rounding a sharp curve at high speed. The car was coming from Los Angeles. According to the passengers, the brake of the car would not work, and owing to the high speed it could not keep the rails when it struck the curve. J. S. Lloyd of Venice, the man who lost his life, died on the way to a hospital.

Later today it was announced at the Santa Monica hospital that three of those injured would likely die. They are Lawrence Hunt of Santee, Elmer Taylor, a Los Angeles newspaper man, and Clifford Haskell of Venice. All of those injured were witnesses to a gambling raid in a Venice hotel and were returning to their homes at the beach.

TAFT RALLY POSTPONED UNTIL MONDAY EVENING

Harlan and Bede to Be Speakers at Mass-Meeting in This City

The Taft rally, which was to have been held here Saturday, has been postponed until Monday evening to accommodate the itinerary of the speakers, Adam Bede of Minnesota and James S. Harlan of Chicago. Every preparation will be made to accommodate the great crowd that will attend the meeting.

While Bede and Harlan will be the principal orators, it is probable that some local Taft Republicans will be called on for addresses. Harlan is the son of the late Justice of the Supreme Court and is considered one of the big guns of the country. He is thoroughly acquainted with the needs of the nation and now they have been served under the Taft administration. Bede is a humblest philosopher who sees the funny side of things but has a remarkably clear vision of political events.

GENERAL NOGI AND WIFE COMMIT SUICIDE

TOKIO, Sept. 13.—Gen. Count Maresuke Nogi, supreme military councillor, and his wife, the Countess Nogi, committed suicide tonight following the religious ceremonies in connection with the death of the late Emperor Mutsuhito.

General Count Nogi was a national hero in Japan. It was he who captured Port Arthur from the Russians in 1904 and assured the success of his country in the battle of Mukden. The count was born at Hagi, in the province of Choshu, in 1849, and was the oldest son of Maresugu Nogi, a Samurai of the Choshu clan. During the Saigo rebellion he fought bravely at the battles of Yamaguchi and the Tawarazaka and was wounded, and after the rebellion was suppressed he was made a lieutenant colonel. He commanded the first brigade of infantry in the Chinese-Japanese war and captured Port Arthur in one day. In the outbreak of the Russia-Japanese war in 1904 General Nogi was appointed commander of the third army. His forces took 203-metre hill after terrible slaughter, and also destroyed the Russian squadron in the port. He personally received General Stossel's proposal to surrender Port Arthur. The Countess Nogi was a daughter of Yuchi Sadayuki, Samurai of Kagoshima clan.

Eight Women Strip Girl And Tar and Feather Her

NORWALK, Conn., Sept. 13.—A young girl of 13, who became known to the town as the "tar and feather girl," was stripped and tarred and feathered today. She was charged with firing. Leaders of the "tar party" selected a lone girl in the country, a girl who was 13 years old and named her the "tar and feather girl." They were killed with a hammer. Officers have left for the scene of the murders.

ATTACK IS MADE BY REBELS

Insurrectos Open Battle After Demanding Surrender of Mine Camp

U. S. Troops at Border Are Ready to Protect Interests of This Nation

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Sept. 13.—Rebels have begun an attack on El Tigre, the American mining settlement south of the border at this point, according to advices received here today. There are seventy-five American men and six American women isolated in the camp, which is defended by only a few federals. Reinforcements have been sent from Nacozari and must follow a rough trail to reach the camp. The attacking rebels are said to be led by rebel General Enez Salazar.

THREATS FAIL.

The violent threats of Antonio Rojas, the rebel leader, to attack Agua Prieta at daybreak today with no concern for bullets which might fall on American territory, were not fulfilled. Instead Rojas and his band of probably 1000 men, who were camped near the border, left for the south before daylight. Later Mexican cavalry scouts located them twelve miles south, near Casas Grandes.

The relief that followed the rebel withdrawal from the border today gave way to anxiety here when a telephone message was received from El Tigre telling of a demand for the surrender of the American mining camp before daybreak this morning. Later another message said the rebels had begun an attack on the town.

James Malcolmson, consulting engineer of the El Tigre company, immediately called upon General Sangines at Agua Prieta in company with American Consul Dye. An attempt of General Sangines to communicate with the beleaguered garrison was unsuccessful as the telephone wires had been cut.

REINFORCEMENTS NEAR.

Federal reinforcements from Nacozari numbering 2000 were expected to reach El Tigre late today. There was no indication today that General San Jin Sangines would pursue the rebels.

Children Burn to Death In Gasoline Explosion

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 13.—George and Aaron Saarela, aged 4 and 2 years respectively, sons of Mrs. Hilma Saarela, were burned to death in their bed at 7 o'clock this morning. Gertrude Landell, aged 5, daughter of Mrs. O. Landell, was badly burned, but will recover. The fire was caused by the explosion of a gasoline stove. Mrs. Saarela, a janitress, had left home at 5 o'clock and told her 9-year-old son to look after the fire for breakfast. It was while the boy was lighting the gasoline stove that the explosion occurred. The house was destroyed.

Commissioner Dodges Unlucky Figure '13'

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—George M. Bowers, United States commissioner of fisheries, employed every agency today to defy the superstition of the unlucky figure 13, combined with the ill-omened Friday. It is the commissioner's birthday, and he became alarmed to find that he was surrounded by thirteens. The day is Friday, the 13th, Mr. Bowers is 49 years old. The odds of those figures equals 13. Further than that, the addition of the figures of the year 1912 also make 13. On top of it all it is the period of the "dark of the moon." As soon as he arose the commissioner started on a hunt for a rabbit's foot.

GERMANY "INVADING" ARMY IS SUCCESSFUL

DRESDEN, Saxony, Sept. 13.—The maneuvers in Saxony of the German imperial army, which began on September 9, ended today with a victory of the invading army, according to the verdict of Emperor William, who was chief umpire. The result indicates military experts say, the difficulty of Germany's conducting a war while presenting two fronts.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 13.—Second Assistant Fire Chief Albert Reichardt spent today probing in the ruins of the Penn Oil company's burned building on the Webster street roadway, in an effort to determine the cause of the fire. He could find no clear clue to the origin of the fire and the case will probably prove an involved fire mystery.

MISSING BOY MAY BE DEAD

Dana Cronin Thought to Have Been Drowned, Is the Theory of Detectives.

FITCHBURG, Sept. 13.—Abandoning the theory that 14-year-old Dana Cronin, the foster child of Mrs. Paul Bago, of 357 Seventy-fifth avenue, was buried in a cavern of a sewer trench last Tuesday, the Oakland police are working on the theory that the missing lad was either drowned in a swimming pool at the foot of Seventy-third avenue or has run away from home.

Captain Thomas Brown and Detective Samuel Thornhill have taken up the search in the east end of Alameda county. This afternoon they visited canals where lads are employed at Hay ward, San Lorenzo and San Leandro, and up to a late hour failed to find any trace of young Cronin. Captain Brown looked over the ground this morning where it was believed by Mrs. Bago that the boy had been caught in a cavern, and for the time being abandoned the plan of digging for the body. According to men digging the sewer trench for the Spring Construction Company, the cavern occurred several hours before the boy left home.

Morgan Brings Famed Paintings to America

Grasse Fragonards Will Be Placed in New York Gallery.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Private advice from London says that J. P. Morgan has removed from his residence at Prince's Gate ten pictures known as the Grasse Fragonards, and has shipped them to New York, where they will form one of the most attractive features of his private gallery.

The Grasse Fragonards series was painted by Fragonard about 1770 by order of Louis XV of France for Mme. Du Barry, one of the king's favorites.

The pictures, by odd chance, never reached their destination, but remained in Fragonard's studio until 1793, when, in the reign of terror, they were removed secretly to his native city, Grasse. A French art expert "discovered" the paintings in 1898 and took them to Cannes, where they fetched $250,000 at auction.

Steamer Hull Sealed; Fire Damage Unknown

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—Pumped full of carbonic acid gas, the hull of the British tramp steamer Fitzclare, laden with sulphur and coal, which caught fire at her pier Wednesday night, was still sealed tight today and will not be opened until it is reasonably certain the stubborn fire is extinguished. Damage from the water pumped into her is already estimated at $12,000 and the ultimate damage cannot be foretold.

TO REORGANIZE HEALTH BUREAU

Department to Have Director at Salary of Not Less Than $3000.

to Chief of Police Petersen and Harrison S. Robinson, chairman of the civil service board. It is necessary under the pension system to examine all the members of the police and fire departments once a year, and this would cost about $1200. In addition to this he will have charge of the prisoners in the city jail, and of the general health conditions in the city.

TO HOLD EXAMINATIONS.

The reorganization of the health department will entail an addition to the salary roll of the department of about $1500 a year, but this will be compensated for by the added efficiency. For the present, however, some of the duties created will not be filled. This will be the case with the position of health director, which will not be filled for a short time at least, due to the absence of Health Officer Dr. E. N. Ewer. Examinations will immediately be held, however, to fill this position, educational and experience tests being included in the examinations, as well as a thesis on the broad health problems of Oakland.

The following statement was issued by the civil service board today in connection with the proposed reorganization: "It was intended that this ordinance should make the position of health officer purely honorary without compensation, and to give the health director, who shall be the acting head of the department, a salary of not less than $3000 nor more than $3200 per year. But this cannot be done now, as Dr. Ewer, the present health officer, is in Europe and it might result in a temporary vacancy in a very essential position of the city government."

However, the civil service board will proceed at once to hold an examination for the position of health director and as soon as an eligible list can be created, the present ordinance will be amended to conform to the newly devised plan.

"Following are the figures, showing the present salaries in the health department and what they will amount to in the fully developed scheme:

Position	Old	New
Health officer	$15,000.00	$3,000.00
Health director	2,400.00
Master and food inspector	2,400.00	2,400.00
Sanitary and plumbing inspector	2,400.00	2,400.00
4 dep. plumbers	3,600.00	3,600.00
4 dep. sanitary inspectors	4,800.00	4,800.00
Chief dep. food inspector	1,800.00	1,800.00
Food inspector	1,800.00	1,800.00
Chief deputy dairy inspector (not to be filled at present)	3,000.00	2,850.00
2 dairy inspectors	1,200.00
Meat inspector (not to be filled at present)	12,000.00	12,000.00
10 meat inspectors	1,800.00	1,800.00
Office secretary	750.00	750.00
1 janitor	150.00	150.00
1 janitor	150.00	150.00
1 janitor	150.00	150.00
1 janitor	150.00	150.00
City bacteriologist	1,200.00	1,200.00
Total	$28,340.00	$30,840.00
Additional cost of new system, $1500 per annum.

FEATURES OF NEW SYSTEM.

"It has seemed impossible in the past to have at the head of the Health Department, a man engaged in private practice who, at the same time could give such attention to the work of the department as its proper direction and administration actually require."

The position of health officer will therefore be made an honorary one, without compensation, as the duties are in the main intended to be advisory and with comparatively little responsibility.

INCREASED COST.

"These facts alone justify the creation of the position of health director, the occupant of which shall act in his entire time to the service of the city. His duties shall be executive and administrative and he shall be held accountable for the direction and operation of the entire department, vested with all the necessary authority for that purpose. He will act as city physician, as the health officer has heretofore done, and he will also examine not less than once in each year, every member of the police and fire departments who is under the pension system. These examinations are absolutely necessary for the financial protection of the city, and if done by outside physicians, the very lowest wholesale rate obtainable would cost the city not less than $1250 per year. The entire increased cost of the re-organized department will amount to but little more than this sum."

"The re-organization provides for a centralized office force which shall attend to the clerical work of all branches of the department. At the present time certain men employed and paid for acting as inspectors, spend part of their time doing clerical work. In most cases these men are unfitted to do such work efficiently and in all cases they are paid twice as much as the current rates for the necessary clerical help. This is the reason for creating the additional position of stenographer in the secretary's office. The other changes involve a standardization of salaries."

FIFTY-DOLLAR BILL SWALLOWED BY HORSE

SPIRIT LAKE, Sept. 13.—Here is a horse worth at least $50. Ben Benda, a farmer, residing out of the city a short distance, wanted to assist in the celebration of his birthday and thought $50 would look good to him. He thought that he would let his daughter share in the pleasure of the gift and handed her the $50 bill. Mr. Benda Sr. was out on the farm at the daughter went out there, finding that her grandpa was in the lot. To surprise him she thought he would see it when he came down. As soon as the girl had turned away the horse, which was standing near, reached over and picked up the bill and before she had realized the situation it had swallowed the bill.

"UNCLE JOE" CANNON IS SOME HIGH KICKER

MOONHEAD, Minn., Sept. 13.—"Uncle Joe" Cannon, in a letter to State Senator Charles S. Marden, accepts the challenge of J. B. Blanchard, aged ninety, of this city, to a high kicking contest. Cannon's reply was: "I cannot accept that Mr. Blanchard first get a reputation before attempting to challenge me in this regard, for, of course, his prowess in this delightful sport is known to all men. In view of the tone of defiance indicated by this statement, I cannot do otherwise than to accept."

Cannon then represents his best kick to Blanchard, who on his nineteenth birthday declared he could beat "Uncle Joe" or any other young old boys at a high kicking contest. The date of the meet has not been set.

U. S. CAVALRY ON WAY TO BORDER

Troops to Prevent Killing of Innocent Persons on American Soil.

that yesterday threatened Agua Prieta, although he now has a force of about 1200 men, including 250 cavalry and some artillery.

General Rojas is quoted by an American as stating that he had no intention of taking Agua Prieta, as it would be useless to him. He said he merely wanted to draw out the federals for a battle.

The reported "Hibuster expedition" by Americans into Mexico proves to have been the flight of three Americans who had been told they were to be arrested for violating the neutrality laws.

The men were said to have been giving the officials of both sides of the line a great deal of worry. Their departure was the result of a "framing" by secret service men who quietly informed that if they were in Douglas yesterday morning they would be arrested. The "invaders," before leaving Douglas at daybreak, gave it out that their departure was part of a general plan for an American invasion of Mexico.

TROOPS IN READINESS.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—American troops may take a hand in the fighting at Agua Prieta if bombs fall in Douglas, Ariz., or lives are menaced on the American side of the Mexican boundary.

This was indicated today at the headquarters of the general staff of the army following advice that rebel leaders would disregard warnings that they must not fire in the direction of Douglas.

The commanders have blanket instructions to prevent a repetition of the killing of innocent Americans in Douglas during the Madero rebellion. These are broad enough to cover practically any contingency, and it was made plain today that any reasonable action by commanders would be upheld by the War Department. Other and more definite instructions may be issued by Major-General Wood, chief of staff, later today.

Brigadier-General Steever reports filibustering expeditions crossing at Mexicali, Mazo and Douglas.

FIRE ON AGUA PRIETA.

EL PASO, Sept. 13.—After firing a few shots into Agua Prieta the rebels that have been threatening the town on the town disappeared southward early today. The rebels fired occasional shots during the night at federal scouts and outposts. The emphatic notice served by United States army officers to the rebels not to fire into American territory is believed to have caused the rebels to retreat. Americans fear that the rebels will attempt reprisals by attacking towns inhabited by Americans in Sonora.

TROOPS START FOR BORDER.

FORT RILEY, Kan., Sept. 13.—Eighteen companies of the Thirtieth United States Infantry, two pack trains and a detachment from the hospital corps bound for the Mexican border in response to orders issued from Washington last week, began today. The troops will travel in four squadrons under the command of Colonel C. A. Hatfield. The first squadron departed shortly before noon. The last was expected to get under way late this afternoon.

Orders from the war department allowed Colonel Hatfield's command 48 hours from the time of departure in which the reach Fort Bliss, Texas, where it will be placed at the disposal of General Steever. The Thirtieth Cavalry numbers about 850 men, or about 65 to a troop.

REBELS NOT RECOGNIZED.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—The state department does not approve the suggestion of Senator Fall that the United States recognize the belligerency of the Mexican rebels, that it might act as umpire or mediator. It was said at the department that the rebels held no important towns, had no accredited head and had failed to follow any set military program. Under the circumstances, it was declared, the revolutionists should be regarded only as rebels against a friendly government.

MARCH ON BORDER TOWN.

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 13.—Newly organized rebel bands, the members styling themselves followers of Emilio Vasquez Gomez, have made their appearance in the state of Coahuila and are marching on Ciudad Porfirio Diaz, the border town opposite Eagle Pass, Texas, according to consular reports received here today.

ATTACK EXPECTED.

EL PASO, Texas, Sept. 13.—A special to the Herald says Mexican federals at Agua Prieta expect Rojas to return later today and attack the town, as the rebels have merely gone a few miles away to water holes.

SMITH REVIEWS TROOPS.

EL PASO, Sept. 13.—A review of all the troops at Fort Bliss was held this morning in honor of William Alden Smith, United States Senator and member of the foreign affairs committee, who is here investigating the Mexican situation. General E. Z. Steever reviewed the troops with Senator Smith and family. Senator Smith, accompanied by Senator A. B. Fall of New Mexico, will leave tonight for Los Angeles to continue his investigations.

CHIEF PETERSEN MAKING CHANGES

Police Department to Undergo a General Overhauling and Shake Up.

With the standing of the men in the civil service promotional examinations recently held, Chief Petersen has carefully avoided showing any favoritism by adhering to the civil service rating of the men he has raised in rank.

IN EFFECT SUNDAY

The changes will be ordered tomorrow and will go into effect Sunday. The night sergeants who will no longer swell with pride of brass buttons and blue uniforms in the light of the sun, but will have charge of the districts by night are as follows:

Central or downtown business district, Sergeant Frank Ahern, recently promoted and now on duty as desk sergeant at Melrose.
West Oakland district, Sergeant Robert Porgie, now on duty as desk sergeant at central station.
North Oakland, Sergeant Frank Sill, East Oakland, from Lake Merritt to East Park street (a newly created district formed under the new rules), Sergeant Michael Byrne, now in West Oakland.

Melrose district, Sergeant William Buckett, now on duty at central station.
McCloud goes to Melrose.

Sergeant James Walters will be transferred from night to day duty in the central district. Sergeant William McCloud is to be changed from the central district to day desk sergeant at Melrose.
In the central police station a radical change will be effected. Sergeants McCloud, Schroeder and Porgie have been alternating on eight-hour watches each, changing the watch each month. This will be changed.

Sergeant Fred Schroeder, the biggest man in the department, is made regular day sergeant on duty from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m., and is also given the title of chief jailer. He will be held responsible for the prisoners, sanitary condition of the jail and all matters pertaining to the prison.
Two promotions are involved in the handling of the desk at the central station. Charles Back, a night captain will have general charge of the larger part of Oakland. Captain Thorwald Brown and Lieutenant William Woods will alternate in charge of the annexed district.

CAPTAINS UNDER PRESENT RULES

For the present the captains will remain under the present rules. Captain J. P. Lynch as day captain and Captain Charles Back as night captain will have general charge of the larger part of Oakland. Captain Thorwald Brown and Lieutenant William Woods will alternate in charge of the annexed district.
The captains will be held directly responsible for the sergeants and each sergeant will be held responsible for the men in his district. Stricter police

TAG-DAY SPIRIT GROWS; GENEROUS AID ENLISTED

Public Not to Be Asked to Purchase More Than One Tag Apiece

The first important meeting of the Ladies' Relief Association and the Providence Hospital Auxiliary to formulate plans for the coming Tag Day was held yesterday in the Tea Room of the Woman's Exchange. It was a most enthusiastic meeting and plans were launched in a very hopeful, helpful way. There was a large attendance when the meeting was called to order by Miss Matilda Brown, president of the Ladies' Relief Association and chairman of the general Tag Day committee.

The meeting was called to order by Miss Brown and the "Spirit of Tag Day" was the subject of the address made by Miss Mollie Connors, secretary of the committee.

TAG PROUD EMBLEM.

It was represented that a tag was an emblem of unselfish care for others and an expression of duty conscientiously performed.
"The poor we have with us, and like wise the needy," said Miss Connors, and our duty being plain, Tag Day seems our best way to accomplish our charitable ends.

"A very small tax from every one in the way of a tag, means much to two of the most important organizations in our city. A great, abounding spirit of generous helpfulness should surround all the details of Tag Day, and it should represent one of the happiest days of the autumn."

ONE TAG EACH SUFFICIENT.

The women assembled wished it to be especially understood that no one would be asked to buy more than one tag. The wearing of a tag will mean that one's duty has been performed. Any other contribution will be purely voluntary.
A fine feature of the Tag Day plans is the splendid way in which other organizations have lined up behind the Ladies' Relief and the Providence Auxiliary. The encouragement means the first start in the success of the undertaking.

EAGER TO HELP.

The following letter from Mrs. Lillian Brown Everts, president of the Woman's Exchange, was read:

"My Dear Miss Brown: It gives me pleasure, in the name of the board of the Woman's Exchange, to offer the use of the private room at the Exchange for any committee meetings you may have before Tag Day. We shall also be pleased to have you or any of your associate workers make use of the tea room on Tag Day in any way you care to.
"Will you kindly speak of it to the other representatives of societies working for the cause?"

rules are to be rigidly enforced with the new order of things and a military precision introduced into police affairs.
"These are the first of a number of changes I plan to make for the good of the force," declared Chief Petersen this morning. "Others are to follow. My action does not imply any criticism of past methods, but suggests that we are going to try to improve the police service of this city in a material manner."

"I am issuing new rules for the cafes and I shall see that they are enforced. The district in which the segregated houses are to be found is to be more carefully regulated and the handling of the houses themselves will mean the enforcement of more rigid regulations."

ing with you and say we shall be glad to have you freely use the tea room.
"Wishing you great success, sincerely,
"LILLIAN BROWN EVERTS."

It proved to be a very helpful, encouraging letter, and the pleasure and thanks of the women assembled were enthusiastically expressed.

CO-OPERATION ASSURED.

From the West Oakland Home came Miss Grace Trevor, its president, with most helpful suggestions, and Mrs. F. J. Henkenius of the West Oakland Home also gave able advice. Mrs. Thomas Hogan and Mrs. F. P. Weston wished specially to discourage any rivalry which might detract from the splendid spirit of the day.

Mrs. E. Lehnhardt very generously offered the use of her establishment on Tag Day to the committee.
Mrs. F. P. Weston and Mrs. Thomas Hogan were appointed a committee to district the city, and Mrs. Henry Miles Bull has been made chairman of the committee on tags.

Generous offers of help have already come to the committee, encouraging them to go on in their good work.
George Austin, the real estate dealer, has generously offered to district the city, kindly giving the services of four of his men, that the city may be wisely apportioned.

Among those present at this first meeting were: Miss Matilda Brown, Mrs. Thomas Hogan, Mrs. Henry Miles Bull, Mrs. F. P. Weston, Mrs. A. E. Euston, Mrs. Mollie Connors, Mrs. Anne Miller, Mrs. William G. Henshaw, Miss Mona Crallin, Mrs. R. A. Wellman, Miss Jessie Campbell, Mrs. Walter Henry, Mrs. Thomas Phoebe, Mrs. Arthur Creed, Miss Helen Campbell, Mrs. J. Y. McGraw, Mrs. Bakewell, Mrs. J. Y. Euston, Mrs. Edwin Garthwaite, Mrs. Magee, Mrs. E. S. Garrison, Mrs. A. A. Champreux, Mrs. James Gardiner, Mrs. John Mellon, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. H. L. Carley, Mrs. M. Gallagher, Mrs. James Cackley, Mrs. James Keller, Mrs. F. J. Henkenius, Mrs. J. W. Regan, Mrs. K. B. Smith, Mrs. Agnew, Mrs. Hanifin, Mrs. H. S. Kegan, Mrs. Ghrardell, Mrs. William Knowles.
Important plans will be announced in the near future.

PROPOSED RAISE UNDER SUSPENSION

Increased Freight Tolls Will Not Be Enforced Until December.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—Proposed increases in freight rates on many commodities from southeastern territory to Pacific Coast points were suspended today by the interstate commerce commission until December 21, to afford opportunity for investigation. The transcontinental company filed the tariff some time ago. From the southeastern territory the principal increases on furniture vary from 30 cents to $1.05 per 100 pounds.

SECOND FUNERAL CEREMONY HELD

Streets Brilliantly Lighted as Casket Bearing Emperor's Remains Passes.

sion began to assemble again at the palace. Among them were the holders of orders of merit, officials of many ranks, ministers of state, peers, members of the two houses of parliament and of the imperial cabinet, presidents of provincial assemblies, the mayor of Tokio and the chairman of the Tokio city council.

ENVOYS NON-PARTICIPANTS.

The foreign princes and special emissaries, including that from the United States, headed by P. C. Knox, secretary of state, did not take part in this ceremony. The special envoys and the foreign diplomats resident in Tokio went directly after the conclusion of the funeral service to Aoyama.

All of the officials gathered at the entrance of the palace, where a double line was formed. The great funeral car, attended by a large number of Japanese of high rank, wearing the ancient national court mourning costume, consisting of an upper robe of horse-chestnut color, dull-colored loose trousers and coronet caps of black silk, was then brought to the gate.

CASKET PLACED ON CAR.

To the wailing notes of a Shinto dirge the immense coffin was wheeled in solemn procession, from the main hall. Chamberlains marched in front of the funeral car and following it were the grand master of ceremonies, bearing the departed monarch's sword, and the master of the household, carrying the imperial sword of state. On the right of the casket walked high officials of the household carrying lighted candles.

Profound silence prevailed as the casket was placed on the funeral car and all those gathered in the vicinity of the palace bowed their heads. On the top of the coffin reposed a small white wooden tray on which the imperial sword was placed. Then the doors of the car were shut and locked, the candles extinguished and torches lighted by those who were to march alongside.

ROYAL PARTY STARTS.

When all the arrangements had been completed Emperor Yoshihito and Empress Sadako, Princess Takekida, representing the empress dowager, whose physicians prohibited her from taking part in the ceremonies, and the princesses of the imperial family came through the hall, entered their carriages and started off alone for Aoyama in order to be ready to receive the casket on its arrival there.

After the departure of their majesties the great procession formed in line. It was headed by twelve police inspectors and the inspector-general. These were followed by strong contingents of military and naval guards of honor. Then came the attendants bearing torches and wearing garments of hemp. Others carried drums and musical instruments of ancient types on which they played dirges.

The funeral car was preceded immediately by Count Togo, grand master of ceremonies, and Count Watanabe, minister of the imperial household, who were flanked by torch-bearers.

CARRY BANNERS.

Retainers carrying white and yellow banners, representing the sun and the moon in figured damask silk, the sun in gold and the moon in silver, accompanied the procession. Others bearing bows and arrow shafts and halberds and other old martial equipments, followed. Still other attendants carried sacred trees, caskets of offerings, paper prayer strips, gongs, peculiar shaped drums and flutes. Interspersed among them were hundreds of shinto ritualists and officers of the funeral corps.

The car bearing the casket was of hard Japanese wood, of very heavy structure, and was borne on only two wheels. It was drawn by five oxen, each attended by seven drivers. Alongside marched fifty young farmers from the village of Yaze, near Kito, bearers of the imperial palanquin on ceremonial occasions. Fourteen high naval and military officers acted as a special escort.

PRINCES IN LINE.

Many other army and navy officers, chamberlains, civil officials and torch bearers came next and preceding Prince Kanin, the representative of Emperor Yoshihito, the procession. After him came several princes of the blood with their aids and the representatives of peers. The late emperor's physicians followed and then the ministers of state and more officials, the procession followed with some thousands of soldiers and sailors.

The entire division of the imperial bodyguard marched behind the coffin, as did representatives of all the army divisions and 1000 sailors from the fleet. Thousands of other troops lined the route from the palace to Aoyama. All those who participated in the cortege were on foot.

THRONGS AT BRIDGE.

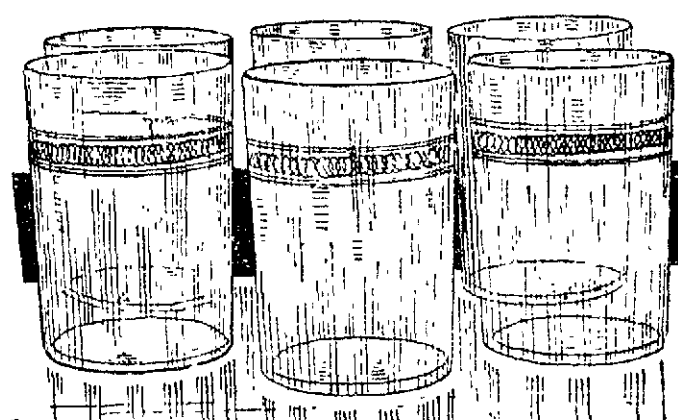

The procession was from the palace through the grounds and over the great double bridge used only by the emperor himself and by foreign ambassadors and great dignitaries.

A great throng filled the space on the other side of the bridge and a peculiar effect was produced as the procession passed through their mute ranks, only the sound of weird shinto music being heard. The scene was an impressive and spectacular one. The route took the procession past most of the public buildings and embassies, including that of the United States.

Two Years' Work Is Nullified by Law

German Girl Will Have to Marry or Be Naturalized to Get Position.

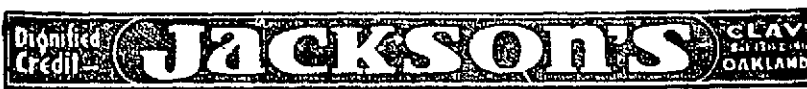

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 13.—After herself had been posted in the public library, Miss Matilda Wach, a German girl, who came here from the country on the Rhine, learned today that she could not have the place she sought until she married or took out naturalization papers. These were the only two ways of acquiring American citizenship, which is a requirement for the public service, and neither alternative suited her.
"If I married, she said, "I would have to leave home and would not have time to work in the library. If I waited for naturalization papers it would take too long. I think your laws are foolish."

MUIR IS HOST TO NOTED DIPLOMAT

Ambassador James Bryce the Guest at University Club.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—James Bryce, ambassador to the United States from Great Britain, left here this morning for Moosehead Lake, Maine, the summer quarters of the British embassy.

He arrived here yesterday from Australia where he had spent the summer. He refused to discuss in any manner the policy of the government toward the Panama Canal.
Two aged men of keen intellect, both lovers of nature, met at the San Francisco University Club last night. They were James Bryce, ambassador to the United States from Great Britain, and James Muir, the celebrated naturalist.

Ambassador Bryce, who arrived yesterday, was entertained by the Sierra Club at a private social dinner by Muir, who is president of the club, and the board of directors of the organization.
The only other guest was President Benjamin D. Wheeler of the University of California, an old and close friend of the ambassador. Yesterday was the thirty-eighth anniversary of the ascent

SHRINERS ARE READY FOR PILGRIMAGE

BANDSMEN TO SEEK STATE FAIR LAURELS

MR. AND MRS. W. T. FIDWELL, WHO WILL MAKE PILGRIMAGE TO STATE FAIR WITH AARHES TEMPLE.—Scharz Photo.

Women Take Interest in Efforts of Oakland's Aahmes Temple

The nobles of Aahmes Temple, Order of the Mystic Shrine, and members of the other Masonic fraternities of Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda and other east bay cities, will leave Sixteenth-street depot at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon on a pilgrimage to Sacramento to attend the State fair. The visitors will carry large quantities of literature advertising the east bay cities. Aahmes band, one of the best amateur organizations in the bay cities, will compete at the State fair grounds Sunday in the contest under the fair management for the best amateur band in the State. The first prize is for $500 and other prizes are for $300, $200 and $150.

A special train of six cars, decorated with the Masonic colors, will carry the lodges, who will be accompanied by their wives, sisters and women friends. Many reservations have already been made, and others who wish to make the trip can make arrangements at the depot before the train leaves.

WOMEN TAKE INTEREST. Great credit is due a committee of women headed by Mrs. Frank W. Bilger, wife of the illustrious Potentate of Aahmes, for the interest taken in the pilgrimage by the women of the bay cities. Those assisting Mrs. Bilger in the work are: Mrs. Charles F. Poulter, Mrs. L. E. Westrich, Mrs. George S. Meredith, Mrs. J. R. D. Mackenzie, Mrs. W. T. Fidwell and Mrs. C. H. Benton.

Aahmes band held final practice last night under the direction of W. T. Fidwell, bandmaster. Major Charles F. Poulter of Aahmes patrol put the bandmen through steps and evolutions, and it is confidently believed that the organization will make a great showing in the contest.

SACRED CONCERT. In addition to the band contest, a sacred concert, in which more than 400 instruments will be heard, will be featured of the Sunday program. A program by the band will be given during the journey to Sacramento.

Headquarters will be at the Sacramento hotel, Tenth and K streets, and the entire hotel will be turned over to the visitors. A reception and ball will be held Saturday night. The committee of Shriner in charge of the affair is composed of J. R. D. Mackenzie, chairman; Dr. J. L. Paez, L. E. Westrich and F. W. LeBallister.

COLD STORAGE PLANT TO BE BUILT BY CITY

OCEAN PARK, Sept. 12.—A public cold storage plant, where foodstuffs can be housed when prices are low, for distribution to meet later demand, is to be built here, $10,000 having been set aside by the city trustees. The high cost of living is the cause of general complaint, and it is argued that a cold storage plant, operated by the municipality, will go far to relieve the situation and save the city a large expenditure.

The purchase of provisions in large quantities when the market is abundantly supplied and prices consequently low is the method to be followed. Sale either to consumers or to local dealers would meet the season's demands as they arose.

WAGE HARD FIGHT ON TEXAS FEVER TICK

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—Government experts are anxiously preventing the Texas fever ticks into smaller confines in the south. The work is being pushed this summer and Department of Agriculture officials have threatened the federal and state authorities the pest which now causes an annual loss estimated at $40,000,000 to $100,000,000 may eventually be eradicated. The magnitude of the task is apparent when the fact that the mother tick breeds of one season may be 5000 little ticks, each one of which is a menace to cattle.

WOMAN IS 98 BEFORE TRAVELING ON TRAIN

JOPLIN, Mo., Sept. 12.—Mrs. Amanda Stotts, 98 years old, experienced her first ride aboard a railway train yesterday when she made a trip from her home at Stotts City, Mo., to Joplin, a distance of sixty miles. Although she had lived with a few miles of a railroad for several years she never before could be induced to travel by rail. Her first trip was in company with a son, with whom she was en route to McCloud, Kans., to live the rest of her life on a farm.

COUPLE REVEAL MARRIAGE SECRET

Student at Medical College Is Wed to Noted Rippon Beauty.

STOCKTON, Sept. 12.—Dan Canid threatens to outshine politics, Native Sons' celebration, and everything else of interest to Stockton people. Following the recent announcement by Ray Woodward, a popular young clubman and member of an anti-marriage club, of his engagement to Miss Lavinia Ward, a pretty little manufacturer, whom he met at the Hotel Stockton, came the surprising news yesterday that Lester E. Tretheway, a student at the Hahnemann medical college in San Francisco, and Miss Lucille Vinet were married secretly last November.

Tretheway is the son of William E. Tretheway, president of the Stockton Iron works and is a graduate of the Stockton high school, where he was a member of the Gamma Eta Kappa fraternity.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Vinet of Rippon and is a brunette of beauty and charm. Vinet is a wealthy land owner. At the time of the secret marriage Tretheway held a position with the Western States Gas and Electric company. On November 11, 1911, the two slipped away to San Rafael and were married. The next day they returned to Stockton and resumed their work and social affairs as though nothing had occurred.

Intimate friends of the couple had no suspicion of the secret. The young bride soon after returned to her home near Rippon, and has been living there with her parents ever since. Last month Tretheway enrolled as a student at the Hahnemann medical college.

WILL IMPORT LIVE STOCK.

BERLIN, Sept. 12.—The Magdeburg, Mayence and Dresden municipal authorities have decided to take steps for the importation of live stock for consumption and also to appeal to the government for relief from the high price of meats. Dresden will permit the butchers to handle importations upon their agreement to sell at a 10 per cent advance on the cost, otherwise the city will retail direct.

'CASCARETS' BEST FOR THE BOWELS

No Headache, Bad Taste, Sour Stomach or Coated Tongue by Morning.

It is more necessary that you keep your Bowels, Liver and Stomach clean, pure and fresh than it is to keep the sewer and drainage of a large city free from obstruction.

Are you keeping clean inside with Cascarets—our merely forcing a passage every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, indigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system the constipated waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels.

No odds how badly and upset you feel, a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. They work gently and sure.

JAMES MULGREW LAID TO HIS FINAL REST

The funeral of the late James Mulgrew, one of the oldest residents of Oakland, who died at his East Oakland home Wednesday night, was held this morning at St. Anthony's Church. The services were attended by many friends and the burial was at St. Mary's cemetery.

AMAZONS TRY TO BREAK UP MEETING

Winston Churchill Denounces Methods of the British Suffragettes.

DUNDEE, Scotland, Sept. 12.—Suffragettes did their best to break up a meeting at Lechee, a suburb, where Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, was speaking. After many persons had been ejected Churchill said the political status of women would not be won "by such uncivilized antics as have just been witnessed."

During his speech Churchill outlined a system of federation for Great Britain. He said England alone was too large for a single parliament, which would be strong as an imperial parliament, and that conflict of opinion would be disastrous. He suggested that England be broken up into provinces, such as Lancashire, Yorkshire, Midlands and London.

WATSONVILLE BOASTS LARGEST COAST WHARF

WATSONVILLE, Sept. 12.—The commercial wharf, which has been under construction at Port Watsonville since April 4, was completed yesterday at a cost of more than $100,000. It is the largest on the Pacific Coast, extending into Monterey bay over 1700 feet. It was built by the Watsonville Navigation and Railroad Company, of which F. E. Snowden is president, while the San Francisco Bridge and Construction Company did the actual work.

The electric line of the railroad company, connecting the city and the wharf, will be extended at once to the end of the wharf to facilitate the shipping of the products of the Salinas valley to the San Francisco market. Steamers will be in operation between the port and the metropolis daily within two weeks. The vessels have already been purchased, and will carry both freight and passengers.

The cheap water service is expected to be a big thing in the development of the Salinas valley.

SMUGGLING PLOT INVESTIGATED

Contraband Chinese Forced Into Years of Servitude on Landing.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 13.—When the federal grand jury convened today, one of the first matters brought before it by the district attorney was the alleged smuggling plot, headed by Mrs. Ethel Hall now in the county jail, and which, it was alleged, included a large number of the most prominent Chinese merchants in San Francisco, four of whom are now at liberty on bonds.

According to Captain Charles T. Connell of the immigration service, the smugglers, headed by Mrs. Hall, have waxed rich by bringing in Chinese from Ensenada, Lower California, under a contract that meant years of servitude for the contrabands after they landed on American soil.

Under the terms of the smugglers, it was stated, the Chinese were compelled to work all of their lives in the United States. A charge of $500 was imposed for bringing in each Chinese, this sum to be worked out under contract at the rate of $1.50 a day. A dollar a day was allowed the Chinese by their masters, immigration authorities, and the debt paid off at the rate of 50 cents a day.

PARDEE'S NAME UP AS ELECTOR

Delegates to State Convention Agree to Boost for the Local Man.

At a meeting of the delegates to the Republican State convention from Alameda county, held in the office of Senator Edward J. Tyrrell in the Security Bank building last evening, it was unanimously agreed that the delegation would present Dr. George C. Pardee as the presidential elector for this congressional district, and that the delegation would vote in the State convention for thirteen Republican electors favorable to the candidacy of Roosevelt and Johnson.

The delegation to the Republican State convention which meets in Sacramento Tuesday, September 24, is composed of the Republican candidates for the Legislature from this county, and Senators Hans and Tyrrell, the two hold-over senators.

GRAY HAIRS MAY HAVE WON THE DAY

NOVATO, Sept. 13.—That gray hairs and an aged appearance may be a valuable asset was proven here yesterday when a jury in Justice of the Peace Conrad's court acquitted Mrs. Helen Saunders of San Rafael for that reason, in spite of the fact that it was shown conclusively that she had dumped dead cats and refuse on the front porch of the home of State Senator E. B. Martinelli of San Rafael July 18.

Mrs. Saunders is a San Rafael character, and lives a hermit-like existence in a big house in its fashionable residential district. Her daughter Georgia disappeared years ago, and some years back Mrs. Saunders crept into "the news" by the announcement that a cat popular across appearing in the East was her long-lost daughter. This was later denied by the actress.

Some imaginary grievance caused her to "decorate" Senator Martinelli's porch, as it was shown at the trial.

FIVE ROBBED IN SALOON HOLDUP

Nervous Thief Lines Victims Against Wall and Takes Their Money.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—With the lower part of his face partially concealed by a white handkerchief which seemed to worry him in his work, a nervous highwayman, revolver in hand, entered the saloon of P. Sullivan, 1550 Howard street, late last night. Sullivan was behind the bar and could not reach a revolver which he keeps on a small shelf before he was compelled to put his arms in the air.

There were four customers in the place and with the proprietor they were ranged along the wall with their backs to the robber. As he searched them for valuables the highwayman thrust the muzzle of his weapon against the body of the victims and spoke in husky tones, evidently to disguise his voice.

The five men yielded up $17. No effort was made to disturb their watches or scarfpins. The robber then went to the cash register and obtained $24. Backing from the place he warned the men to remain for five minutes on penalty of being shot. Sullivan, disregarding the warning, rushed forth, but the bandit had fled. The highwayman is described as 25 years of age, 5 feet 9 inches tall and wore a dark hat.

MANY SUBPENAED BY DE JARNETTE

Young Attorney Calls on the Clergymen, Lawyers and Jurists.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—Two Alameda county judges, two judges of the local superior court, and several justices of the peace, as well as attorneys and prominent citizens, have been subpoenaed by Henry de Jarnette, the young attorney charged with insanity to testify in his behalf at his trial at 8:30 o'clock this afternoon. Detectives Troll and Riehl are serving the citations. The Rev. William C. Spencer of 1525 East Twenty-second street, Oakland; Rev. R. Vaughan of 2444 Carlton street, Berkeley; and Maria J. of 2015 Howe street, Berkeley, were summoned this morning and are expected to testify to their belief in the sanity of the lawyer.

In all 22 persons have been subpoenaed including Judges Lawlor and Sturtevant, Dr. R. E. Berling's private secretary, and Charles Creighton, Attorney Thomas Dozier, and William Hayes, president of the University of California club.

De Jarnette was taken into custody on Wednesday. It being alleged that he had acted queerly following an unsuccessful quest for the hand of Miss Ann Sutherland, of the San Maurice apartments, Sutter and Jones streets. He denies that his infatuation for the young woman unbalanced his mind and following an examination yesterday by alienists at the detention hospital, he was removed to Dr. R. E. Berling's private sanitarium.

Judge Van Nestland will conduct the hearing in his court room today and the examining physicians will also testify.

SAMUEL YOUNG SOUGHT; WIFE DIED WEEK AGO

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—The local police received a communication from Los Angeles today asking that Samuel Young, who is believed to be in this city or Oakland, be located. Young's wife died suddenly on August 21, and the relatives, in the belief that he would communicate with them, embalmed the body and kept it one week. He has not been heard from. There are a number of property interests to be settled.

Mckenzies of 825 Santa Barbara street, Los Angeles, requests that she be notified of his whereabouts.

PIONEER TELLS OF LYNCHING BEES

Bad Men Had to Be Kept Down by Early Settlers in Oakland.

The members of the Denton Club were highly entertained at their last meeting by V. S. Northey, who has been a resident of East Oakland since 1857. At that time the land east of Lake Merritt was divided into two little towns, Clinton and San Antonio. The Spanish residents held bull fights and barbecues where street cars now run and the bad men who so prevalent that hanging came often enough to keep up the excitement and a healthy interest in life. Northey fairly harrowed his hearers by a recital of murder upon murder and many who lived near the places where the favorite hanging grounds, or rather trees, were situated, hurried away for fear they might have to pass them after dark.

The speaker told of the funeral which was so well attended at the church that the minister thought it a good opportunity to take up a collection. The results justified his judgment.

He told of a jury that brought in a verdict of guilty for a man accused of breaking a window, and when the judge ordered a fine of $100 from the place he paid it. He said he had to decide on the evidence but nevertheless he, the jurymen, was the one who did the breaking.

It cost a dollar to cross the bay these days until there was a cut rate of 50 cents. Next week Mrs. Nellie C. Lane will talk of olden times.

ELECTION FRAUDS PROBED IN SOUTH

Scores of Citations Issued in Connection With Illegal Voting.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 13.—More than 100 citations were issued today by the district attorney's office in connection with the charges of irregularities at the primary election of Tuesday, September 3. Nearly all of the election officials at Santa Monica and Long Beach were summoned to answer charges filed by W. H. Holabird, Republican candidate for Congress. That Progressive literature was sent out with the election ballots, and that Progressive election officers solicited votes within the restricted limits of polling places, to prove the offenders would be liable to a fine of $5000 or imprisonment from one to five years, or both.

Deputy County Clerk McAleer, in charge of the sending out of all election ballots, absolutely denied to appear that there was any irregularity, so far as the county clerk's office was concerned, in the distribution of ballots.

The suburban officials, together with a hundred or more witnesses from the city, were notified to appear before the grand jury next Thursday and tell what they knew about the alleged frauds. Deputy District Attorney W. J. Jones will be in charge of the investigation.

SCHOOLHOUSE IDEA OLD, SAYS COLONEL

Roosevelt Declares He Is Not Using Wilson Thunder in Speeches.

POCATELLO, Idaho, Sept. 12.—For the purpose of showing that he was not using stolen thunder in his campaign speeches, Colonel Roosevelt said today that it was two years ago when he first advocated the use of school houses for political gatherings and other public meetings. He said that the school houses were not utilized as they should be. Two years ago, he pointed out that the school houses could be turned to the advantage of the people as they have not been. There is a place for mothers' meetings, there is a place for the young people's meetings, there is a place for the place that should be used for public meetings of various kinds, and especially for political discussion.

Colonel Roosevelt's speech was delivered at the fair grounds. A young woman in the audience asked him if he had any more to say about the school houses. He said that he had no more to say about the school houses. He said that he had no more to say about the school houses.

"Colonel, I am Otto Raphael's sister. Quick as a flash the colonel's memory went back to the days when he was police commissioner in New York city. 'You attention was attracted,' he said, 'to a young man who made a gallant rescue of women and children from a fire. I said I wanted that man on the force. It was Otto Raphael and I found him in the Bowery branch of the Y. M. C. A. He made a splendid officer and I don't think he was disappointed in me except once. That was when I refused to let him join my regiment in the Spanish war. The reason was that he did not know one end of a horse from the other.'"

DENOUNCES THOSE WHO TAKE STAND

Woman Accused of Insanity Takes Exception to Charge.

Fierce denunciation against half a dozen witnesses who testified against her was made by Mrs. E. F. Richardson of 558 Forty-third street during her examination on a charge of insanity before Superior Judge Harris this morning. At the conclusion of the ordeal and when the defendant had been remanded into the custody of her husband with the understanding that she be cared for outside this county, Mrs. Richardson proclaimed that everyone connected with the affair, from her husband to the court, had been influenced by the evil mind of S. P. Reynolds of 714 Tenth street, who swore to the affidavit against her. She followed Reynolds into the street and, despite the efforts of her husband and sister to restrain her, shook her fist in the complainant's face, threatening dire vengeance.

The charge was worn to last yesterday before Deputy District Attorney A. A. Rogers. Reynolds complained that he and his wife had been attacked by Mrs. Richardson while leaving a Christian Science lecture given by Dr. Francis Fluno in the Berkeley High School auditorium, last Sunday afternoon. Her trouble with Reynolds she declared today to have been of long standing. She said that she had treated her as a practitioner in Los Angeles some time ago and that his wife had become jealous of his alleged attentions. During the examination she kept up a running fire of conversation with persons in general in the court room and verbally flayed each witness.

Judge Harris continued the case until next Monday, at which time he said he expected to be informed that provision for the case of the defendant had been made outside the county with the alternative of confinement in a state institution. At first Mrs. Richardson refused to leave the courtroom, with her husband, announcing that she did not want to leave Reynolds alone exert his evil influence. "You claim to be a Christian," she said, "but you violate all the precepts of Christianity and the church."

When told that she might be sent to a state institution she exclaimed that that was where she desired to go.

PET COLLIE DOG BITES THREE CHILDREN

ALAMEDA, Sept. 12.—A collie dog belonging to J. H. Nelson, 1138 Bay street, went suddenly mad this morning and before the dog was killed by Pound Master Grant Hicks it had bitten three small school children. One of the three was Ada Burrell, daughter of E. B. Burrell of 1208 Bay street; a second was Anna McCracken, daughter of H. C. McCracken of 914 Mission avenue, and a third was Joseph Perry, the young son of Joseph Perry, Sr., of 1820 Jay street. At the children have been placed under the observation of physicians and it is deemed necessary the Pasteur treatment will be given. After the dog was killed by the pound master the carcass was sent to the University of California laboratory for examination by Dr. Willbur Sawyer.

The dog had been muzzled, but had pushed the muzzle back off its mouth and was able to bite freely. It was snarling and frothing and snapping at everybody in its way as it ran down the street. A panic was created in the section near the Mastick school at which the three children attend. The little Burrell girl was bitten on the right arm and had several bites on the right side of her body. The other two children were bitten on the leg.

DANBURY HATTERS' CASE NOW NEARING AN END

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 12.—The Danbury hatters' case, on trial in the United States District Court, lawyers think, will be finished by the middle of October. The indications are the case will be eventually to the Supreme Court of the United States. Evidence read in the case today concerned the action of the San Francisco Labor Council in putting the firm of D. E. Leove and Company of Danbury, Conn., in the present suit, on the payroll list, and the action of the California State Federation of Labor in endorsing the action of the council in January, 1904.

ASKS TO BE RELIEVED FROM PAYING ALIMONY

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 12.—Dr. Francis Johnson, a Delvalero street druggist, appeared before Superior Judge Graham today petitioning to be relieved from paying $75 a month alimony to his wife, Ada. He informed the court that his wife had taken all his money and he sought therefore to be relieved of the obligation. Johnson said he was a doctor and had withdrawn $5000 from the bank, but claims that it was spent in fitting up the physician's office. "I am convinced that there is some merit in Dr. Johnson's contention if, as he says, his wife obtained control of his money," declared the court. The case was continued until Tuesday.

'MADE UP,' BUT NOT FOR MANY DAYS

Mrs. May Lane Declares the Forgiving Kiss Was Useless.

"Kiss and make up," was what May H. Lane and her husband, Thomas Lane of Alameda did on August 10 last in the office of her attorney after she had filed a suit for divorce against him on August 3. But four days later the angry clouds rolled up again and hubby went away to stay, is charged. Mrs. Lane has rejected her complaint and again her suit is on file with the county clerk.

She says that it would have gone along all right had it not been for the fact of Lane hearing her call another man. After that he refused to let her attend local meetings and lively scene ensued. In addition to that she declares that he slapped her, criticized her first husband and then accused her with "ragging" with friends at their dances.

Maria B. Marcel declared in her testimony upon which she obtained an interlocutory decree of divorce from Antonio Marcelucci that she had supported him for seven years upon $50.00 which she had inherited from her first husband. During that time she said that she had turned funds for him to take a trip to Italy, but that he had consistently refused to perform any labors that would increase the family bank roll. Once in a while he puttered around the house, but she said she never saw him do any work.

LIQUOR LAW TO BE DISCUSSED

The Regulation of Drinking in Restaurants Is Proposed.

Preliminary to the amendment of the liquor ordinance to cut down the number of saloons and to regulate the sale of liquor, the city commissioners and the various civic, church and commercial organizations is to be held at the city hall to consider the recommendations for changes in the present laws. The conference will be held as soon as Mayor Frank K. Mott returns from his vacation, which will be in about ten days.

W. C. Barnard, chairman of the recently created public welfare and censorship commission, writing to Commissioner of Public Health and Safety Fred C. Turner, asked for the holding of such a conference in a letter written under the signature of the Public Service Club of Alameda County. Barnard is president of the commission.

Recommendations from Barnard in regard to saloons are that the sale of liquor shall be prohibited to women in restaurants and cafes unless a meal is eaten at the same time; that liquor shall not be sold to minors under the age of 21 years, and that it shall be made a misdemeanor for minors under 21 years of age to enter places where liquor is sold without meals.

Barnard recommended that the conference should be attended by representatives of the Public Service Club of Alameda County, of the Church Federation and of the Child's Welfare League. Turner added to this in recommending the holding of the conference at the city hall, as a condition of the city council that the Chamber of Commerce, Merchants' Exchange, Royal Arch, Women's Civic League and other organizations should be invited to send representatives.

The council passed a resolution directing City Clerk Thompson to confer with Barnard to fix a date.

WOULD DIRECT YOUTH IN PLAY

Prof. Hetherington Urges the Proper Activities, That Evil May Be Avoided.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Sept. 12.—"The past day," said Professor Clark W. Hetherington in a lecture yesterday afternoon on the training of playground workers, "has been one of constructive ideas. The coming age will be one of constructive powers in the individual. Play is nature's method of educating children. To play is the child's chief business. For the adult, play is nature's way of keeping out of a rut, of keeping our mental power plastic. The constructive method of eliminating the drink habit is to build up other habits which will leave no room for this indulgence."

"The red light district is a playground for men. The women of the district are specialized play things. The business of the recreation worker is to definitely lead boys in their activities so that they do not care to go to such places. Boys well trained would not go to the red light district. Information alone is not sufficient. Smoking, gambling and other vices are similar to be eliminated by the proper direction of play activities. Every bad habit is a product of play gone wrong."

"The need of play centers and organized play is just as great in the country as in the city. Social workers are agreed that the young people of the country are worse off morally than the young people of the city."

"The need of play centers," Professor Hetherington said, "is due to the fact that the home has become too small for play and the smallness of families makes it necessary for children from different homes and from a wide radius to meet together. School activities are limited. The intellectual development of children and interfering with their development makes special attention to play necessary."

"For both children and adults recreation is the coming age. The streets and playgrounds are to be used for play instead of taking part in games. The play center is attempting to build this into life."

According to Professor Hetherington, who is said to be the leading expert on the subject of the training of recreation workers, as careful and long continued technical training for such work is necessary as the training of engineers. Four or five years of study and university work are requisite for thorough preparation. The essentials of this training were said to be knowledge of child psychology and of the way in which to adapt these activities to the children's needs.

"Not everyone," said Professor Hetherington, "is adapted to this work. Judgment, capacity for leading, social sympathy, are qualities necessary to efficiency in this form of public service. The direction of play is the most constructive part of educational work."

STANLEY ACCUSED OF EMBEZZLEMENT

Public Administrator Faces a Charge of Pilfering From Estate.

James Stanley who was public administrator of Alameda county during the late 80s, has been accused of embezzling $5000 from the estate of Professor James M. Phillips who died while an instructor in languages in the University of California in 1910. Phillips in the county of Alameda was taken up by a San Francisco attorney in his attempt to prove the alleged discrepancies in the administrative affairs of Stanley, so far as the Phillips estate is concerned.

Inference is made that while an inventory and appraisal of the estate was being made, Stanley pilfered from it to obtain his discharge during that year when the final papers were placed on record.

That the money included in the estate was never turned into the county treasury is further alleged by Attorney James M. Phillips who took up the matter with Attorney General U. S. Webb and filed the suit for recovery of the money representing the county treasury. The law provides that the action is directed against James Stanley, administrator and his bondsmen, D. W. Baker and Thomas Scott.

It is asked that Stanley and the bondsmen be directed by the probate court to pay the alleged embezzlement into the county treasury. The law provides that the amount with interest be doubled, the total found being in the neighborhood of $10,000. In the event of recovery the attorney would receive a certain share of the amount, while the remainder would revert to the State.

PRIMARY ELECTION COST FRANK M. SMITH $45

It cost Assemblyman Frank M. Smith just $45.50 to be re-elected as a member from the Thirty-sixth district at the primary election held September 3, according to his statement of expenditures filed according to the state law with the county clerk.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The report that Great Britain's "provisional" acceptance to participate in the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco depended upon this government's future attitude on the Panama canal tolls question was refuted today when it became known that the London foreign office had made its acceptance "provisional" to secure assurance from the exposition managers of the British exhibit.

MOTHER-IN-LAW AGAIN BLAMED

W. P. Day Says His Wife Was Not Properly Chaperoned at Monte Rio.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 12.—Improper chaperoning of his wife by his mother-in-law, Mrs. W. P. Winston, is blamed by William Peyton Day, civil engineer and clubman, for his domestic troubles last month which caused his wife, formerly Jane Chandler, through her counsel, Stanley Moore, to file suit for divorce in the superior court.

Mrs. Day sought to prevent the marital disruption from becoming public by her refusal to let her mother-in-law follow her complaint recorded on the secret file, where it still rests.

DAY SEEKS LIGHT. His answer and explanation were filed in the open record of the court today by his attorney, E. V. Meyers.

He admits the allegation of Mrs. Day that he asked her to leave the society of her mother. In explanation he says that after an operation of a local hospital performed upon Mrs. Day, upon the advice of her physician that she journey for a few weeks in the country, on July 15 last he sent her and her mother to Sully's hotel at Monte Rio. They remained there until August 14, when they went to Sonoma county.

The day before his wife and mother-in-law left Monterey, August 16, day says that came to his knowledge, a letter written by a man in San Francisco, a stranger to him, addressed on the envelope to "Mrs. W. P. Winston and Lady Jane Day."

"SPORTY," SAYS HUSBAND. The letter, the husband says, was "sporty," and, in part, read: "Saw that at the hotel here and he said he had just left the 'talent' and you were both fine and fit and ready to go twenty rounds or make the run of your lives. I shall never forget the time we had together, particularly the time with the bottle of No. 6. Trust you have not forgotten our 'proposed' reunion' in the city. Hear that you had a three-round go with Sully and came out winners."

Fortwith he directed Mrs. Day to return home, indicating she should not expect her mother to accompany her. Day says he learned of two postal cards written to the mother and Mrs. Day in care of Sully's by another man.

Mrs. Day returned home. Her husband says, on August 17, and they had their first quarrel after he had explained to her that he had not received the letter. Day said her mother did not exercise proper discretion. Then Mrs. Day left home without leaving with him her address, and the suit for divorce followed.

TRAMPS MAKE SLAVES OF RUNAWAY BOYS

JAMESTOWN, Sept. 12.—Samuel Parratt, son of John Parratt of 103 Hazard street, and Joseph Lottin, son of Charles Lottin of 201 Houston street, young boys returned to Jamestown yesterday after spending a week "seeing the world."

According to a story that comes from Meadville and is corroborated by the two boys, three tramps made slaves of them near that place and for a week compelled them to beg food for them. When they went to the home of John Lamont, on a farm near Conneaut Lake, Mrs. Lamont, who was alone in the house, became suspicious on seeing a tramp lurking in the distance. The boys asked for food. Finally they told their story.

She decided to keep them in the house. Two tramps walked up to the house and knocked on the door. They demanded the two boys. Mrs. Lamont grabbed a shotgun and the tramps ran.

SUICIDE DEFENSE GETS JAR IN MURDER CASE

SAN JOSE, Sept. 13.—Henri La France, son of a San Francisco saloon man, had his preliminary examination on a charge of having murdered V. O. Withers, a wealthy stockman, started yesterday in the justice court here. Before the case was continued until September 25, the prosecution had practically eliminated a chance for a suicide defense by La France's counsel when it put Dr. Edward Newell on the stand to show that a life held close enough to have been fired with suicidal intent would have either blown off the back of Withers' head or torn his whole head off.

Martha Fenton, the oldest ranchman in the hills, testified that La France was highly nervous on the day of the tragedy and came to his cabin crying: "They will hang me, Withers has killed himself with my rifle." The crime is supposed to have been committed for robbery, Withers having $300 in his possession at the time.

SEEKS POWER IN ENERGY OF SUN

Italian Scientist Declares That Substitute Must Be Found for Coal.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—The possibility of using the energy of the sun as a substitute for the fueling coal supply was the subject of an address by Professor Giacomo Ciamician of Bologna, Italy, at the concluding session of one of the sections of the International Chemical Congress here. The speaker said that since the earth's supply of coal is limited, it is not too soon to consider the possibility of getting power from other sources.

He outlined a plan of putting the sun's rays to work by a chemical process after the manner of plants. In conclusion, he said: "If we should become able to utilize the energy of the sun in the way I have described, the tropical countries would become conquered by civilization, which would in this manner return to its birthplace."

"On the arid lands there will spring up industrial colonies, without smoke and without smokestacks, forests of glass tubes will arise everywhere; inside these will take place the photo-chemical processes that have hitherto been the guarded secrets of the plants, at that will have been mastered by human industry, which will know how to make them bear even more abundant fruits than nature for nature is not in a hurry, and mankind is."

CHINESE ENDORSE NEW STEAMER LINE

Dr. Sun Seeks to Induce New Republic to Finance the Enterprise.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 13.—The Chinese of Los Angeles received consular advice from Shanghai today to the effect that Dr. Sun Yat Sen, the revolutionary leader of China, had endorsed a project of the Southern California Chinese for the establishment of a $16,000,000 steamship line between Los Angeles and Hong Kong.

According to the officers of the Chinese-American League of Justice, who originally launched the steamship project, Dr. Sun has taken steps to induce the new Chinese republic to help finance the scheme and in a series of articles which he recently published in several Chinese newspapers, he has declared that "the immediate prosperity of the new republic rests largely upon the commercial relations of China with the far west."

Hoovenin of the Plymouth Oaks pitched a good game. Cattrell and Gilmore pitched half a game each and managed to hold the Plymouth Oaks down fairly well. The fielding on both sides was rather ragged.

The feature of the game was the batting by G. Jolmay, who never failed to get on the bases and succeeded in getting two two-baggers to his credit. The lineup of the two teams was as follows: Plymouth Athletic Club—G. Jolmay, third base; Cowan, shortstop; Gilmore, centerfield; Robinson, first base; M. Jolmay, second base; R. Robinson, right field; Albright, left field; Cattrell, pitcher; H. Nodd, catcher.

L. R. Smith, a member of the high school faculty, and six students have general charge of arranging for the noon-day entertainments. The concerts began shortly after the close of the morning session of the schools and continue for forty minutes. Yesterday Nelson McDee, tenor, was heard in a song recital and today James Preston, baritone, was heard. A Berkeley school of music and drama has offered to furnish a number of the musicals and other similar organizations have offered to help promote the plan whereby school children can hear the best artists perform.

BERKELEY CHIEF SEES

ALAMEDA AUTO PATROL

ALAMEDA, Sept. 13.—Chief of Police Volmer of Berkeley was in a motor car in Alameda yesterday afternoon, coming to the Island City to inspect the Alameda police department auto patrol and ambulance. Berkeley's Police chauffeur Louis Chappelle is figuring on purchasing a similar machine and the Berkeley police chief in the city.

desired to hear what the Alameda authorities had to say regarding the car. The Alameda car is used more for ambulance than patrol purposes, but answers equally well for either service. In several accident cases the machine has covered four and five miles in Alameda yesterday afternoon. Police chauffeur Louis Chappelle is figuring on purchasing a similar machine and the Berkeley police chief in the city.

Prosperity and Discontent—an Anomaly.

Notwithstanding the clamor of political factions and the raucous promises of candidates to redress the wrongs of the people, the country is amazingly prosperous. Despite the complaint about the high cost of living, the average of individual comfort is higher than it ever was before. The laboring class, by which we mean people who earn their living by manual labor, are better housed, better fed and better clothed than at any previous time in the world's history. In the general high level of high prices everybody is grabbing for more and complaining that the other fellow is getting more than his share.

The situation is anomalous. Prosperity is aggressively omnipresent, yet discontent is well-nigh universal. No class is more discontented than the farmers, yet the farmers of the United States are fairly swimming in a sea of prosperity. They are so prosperous that they are charged with responsibility for the advanced cost of the necessities of life. Most of them have money in the bank and many of them own automobiles and take their ease in a way that would have been thought positively disgraceful forty years ago.

Industry is thriving, cities are growing and improving, and the proportion of those in actual distress is declining. Employment is generally easy to find at remunerative wages. By comparison with other periods, the present seems a golden age in our history.

Yet discontent is rife. Fault is being found with pretty much everything. There is graft in politics, bacteria in the milk, water in the whiskey or something else to ruffle the spirit and take the edge off good humor. We have grown suspicious of prosperity itself. We are haunted with the suspicion that it is either fictitious or rotten, and feel under the necessity of applying some drastic remedy to a disorder that we are unable to diagnose. Something is wrong, we are sure of that, but just where or what we cannot say. The specifics suggested as panaceas are as nebulous as the ailments we designate in terms which signify nothing in particular.

The national liver is disordered. There is an overplus of bile and we see things with a jaundiced eye. Many a man thinks the country is in a bad way because he needs a dose of calomel. The country is all right if the people will only act sensibly and look at things in a reasonable light. But they have got a reforming craze on and take a positive pleasure in being dissatisfied with everything to which they have been accustomed, and refuse to be contented unless the old place is torn and completely refurbished.

It is a curious anomaly that in a period of unexampled prosperity there should be so much discontent and such an uneasy desire to try something new in government. The speed mania seems to have got in the national blood, else why should there be such a desire to go joy-riding in politics and do ragtime stunts in legislation? We are so happy that we are aching to raise Cain.

In the course of an address which he delivered to a gathering of postoffice clerks William Kent, Congressman from the old Second District, said: "It is because I believe in democracy and the rights of the other fellow that I am with you in the fight for freedom of speech, the right to organize and improve working conditions." Yet Mr. Kent's candidate for President has the distinction of having forbidden employees of the postoffice department to organize to improve the conditions of their service or to petition Congress for better pay. By an executive order, Colonel Roosevelt, while President, suppressed an attempt of the letter carriers to make themselves heard as a body. He sat down on their right to petition Congress for redress by bluntly stating that a violation of his order would be ground for summary dismissal from the postal service. Several postal employees were actually dismissed for violating the autocratic decree.

"I never hit softly," says the Colonel. According to E. H. Harriman and John D. Archbold the Colonel touched them pretty hard. Archbold says that after he had given up $100,000, he was hit a second time for $150,000. No doubt he will agree that the Colonel does not hit softly.

Bull Moose poetry increases in quantity, but not in quality. The latest metrical effusion glorifying Theodore Africanus has this for its refrain:

"E-yip! Our Teddy is here today.
E-yip! Our Teddy, hooray."

This was the song of welcome that greeted Roosevelt in Portland. It is the eloquence of Buzzfuzz set to music. One must be in an advanced stage of emotional hysteria to relish such trash. But it seems to strike the Bull Moose brethren as music from the spieglers. It is, in fact, below the level of the vaudeville stage.

The straw vote-taker is abroad in the land. He is jack-strawing at church fairs, on trains, in beer halls and at social banquets. The returns always coincide with his wishes. It would be foolish for a man to hold a moot election and do the counting unless he wins. Still the straw vote is only provender for political asses. It is worthless for hay and bunk for politics.

Some Vermont Political History.

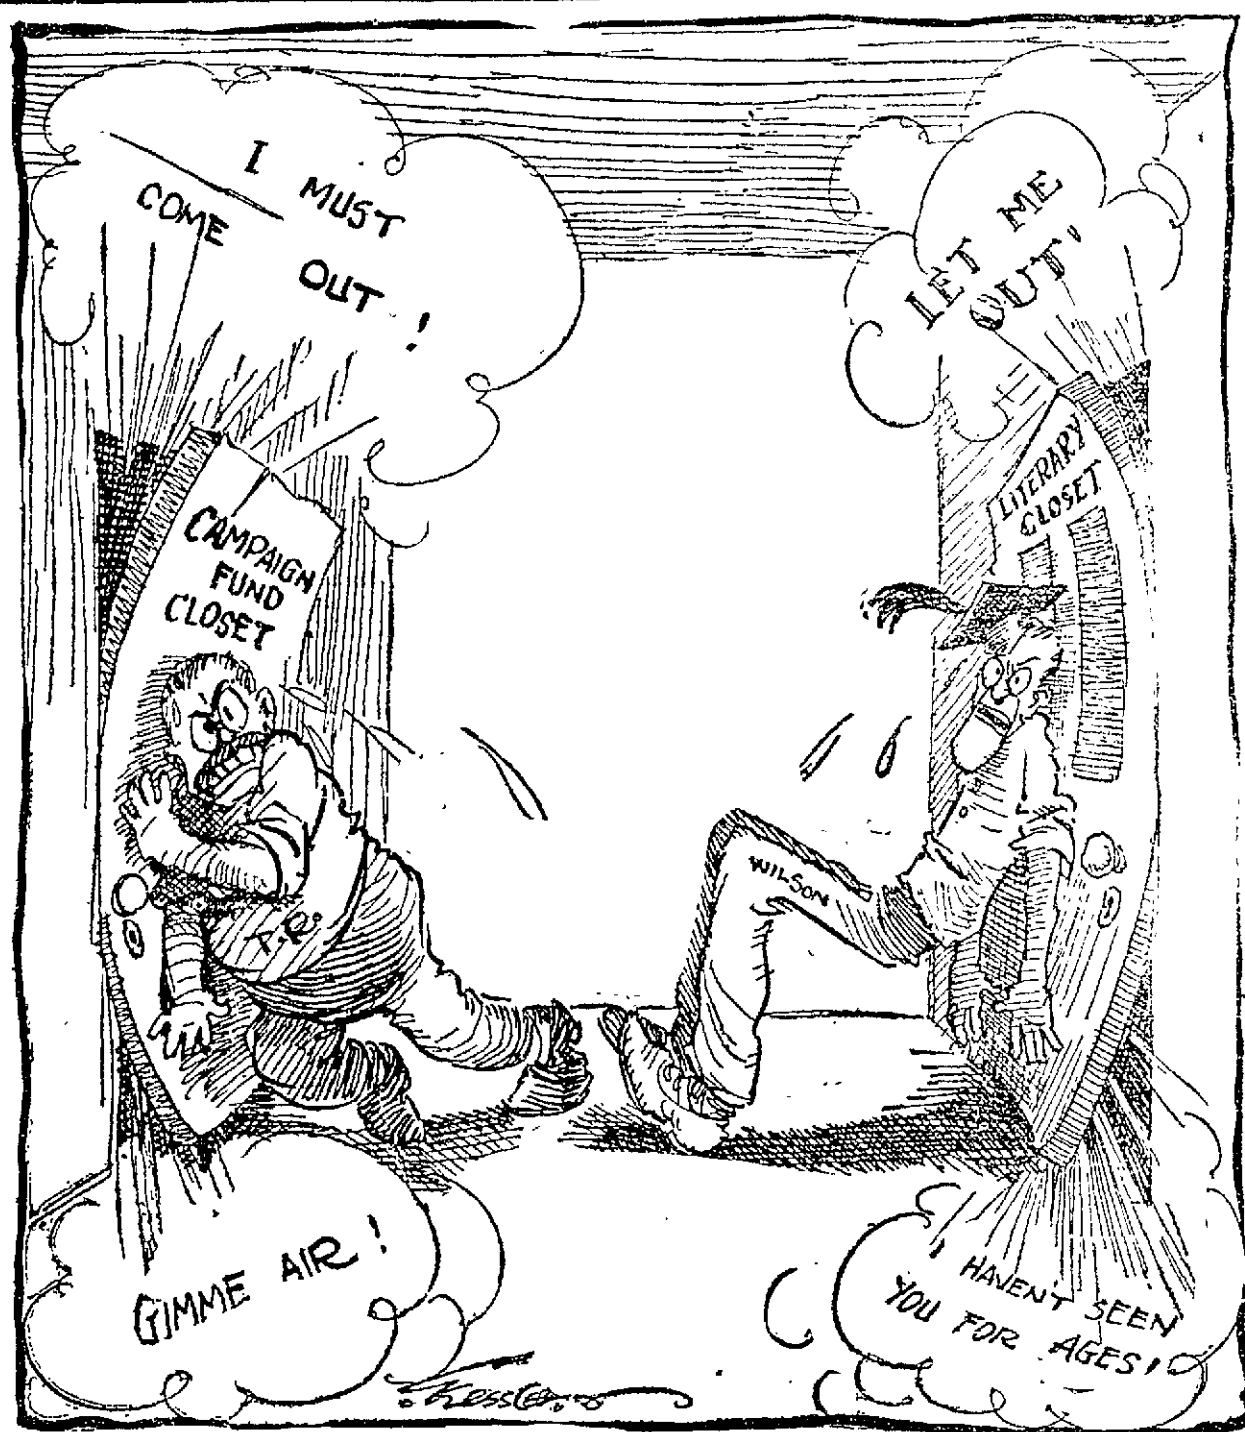

In 1904 Vermont cast 40,459 votes for Roosevelt. The vote cast for Roosevelt's candidate for Governor at the recent election was 15,800. The Republican candidate for Governor received 26,259 to 20,350 cast for the Democratic nominee. The combined Republican and Progressive vote aggregated 42,059—an increase over the Roosevelt vote in 1904 of 1600. The Democratic vote in the meantime increased about 5000. Yet Roosevelt professes to see a happy augury in the figures. The optimism that can discern a rainbow of promise in them is splendid, indeed.

Away back in 1856 Vermont gave John C. Fremont 39,561 votes against 10,560 cast for James Buchanan and 545 for Millard Fillmore. Fremont was the candidate of a new party just formed, yet he received within 2500 of the total vote cast for the Republican and Progressive parties in 1912.

Fifty-six years later, backed by men of inexhaustible means, a condition of very large value in the politics of the present day, another great reformer, with a big B, places himself at the head of another new party, and a party with an even greater moral issue than Fremont, himself being the same, and after weeks of plotting and scheming and sweating the people of Vermont give him 15,800 votes! The fact is sufficient without other comment than this: If the voters of Vermont and the country cannot see it, they are blind; if they cannot hear it, they are deaf; if they cannot feel it, they are dead.

The Vermont returns show that the great body of the voters have hitherto been attached to the Republican party are still loyal to that party, and that the Roosevelt following is not formidable only as a defection in close States. Fremont came before the country as the exponent of a great moral idea, and he carried Vermont by a vote that has never been shaken save when Republican supremacy in the nation was imperiled. Roosevelt comes before the country as the exponent of personal ambition and the third-term idea and his vote is 23,761 less than Fremont received in 1856. That is the mathematical difference between a real moral issue and a flamboyant false pretense—between a principle and an ambition.

LEARNING FROM AMERICANS

Paris, taking the lead among the great European cities, is planning to put into effect the traffic rules that have been developed in New York City and which have proved so effective in handling its congested street travel.

Although these foreign municipalities had traffic problems at a time when there was hardly enough in New York to keep a crossing policeman busy, it has remained for the American, with his genius for systematization, to evolve a scheme by which the public will be best served, whether a wheel or a foot.

This little incident is merely an indication of the manner in which Europe is taking ideas from the United States. Despite the conservatism of centuries and the natural disinclination of proud peoples to borrow from a young nation, the older powers have been compelled to come to America for multitudes or original thoughts.

Leaving aside all concerns of business—in which the citizen of this Republic demonstrated a capability that astonished and then inspired the European—and all matters of athletics—in which branch of activity this country demonstrated its superiority once again at the recent Olympic games—and confining the question purely to home life, the development in Europe due directly to American influence is astounding.

The American sanitary expert has carried innovation into the remotest parts of great European cities. He has made them tear up their venerable pavements, lay new sewers, install novel appliances for health and cleanliness and generally has forced changes in the methods they had practiced for generations.

With characteristic American thoroughness, he has taught Europe that no town is cleaner than its back yards—and the back yards of some of them were buried under the accumulations of centuries. He has been subjected to the pointed criticism that he has not succeeded in cleaning his own Augean stables of crowded citydom, but he had cheerfully retorted by demonstrating how much cleaner, by comparison, even his vilest places are.

The American engineer has given to Europe a world of little labor-saving devices, which it first resisted and then accepted with avidity. He presented the Briton with means of heating the chilly barn he calls "home." He put out and gave stoves into French domestic demities. He made it unnecessary to beat out the clothing on a river bank by proving the cheapness and utility of laundering equipment.—Seattle Times.

NAVY'S AIR FLEET

It has been a long time coming, but the step taken by the officials of the Navy Department to equip battleships with aeroplanes is welcomed with the philosophy, "better late than never." While all the other powers have been making big strides toward acquiring aeroplane fleets, to be used in conjunction with their battleships, the United States virtually has been standing still.

In making public the requirements of the navy to the manufacture of aeroplanes the Navy Department expresses the hope that by this time next year every battleship of the fleet will be equipped with an aeroplane. It is quite evident that the government officials have been discouraged by the recent aeroplane accidents, and it is right that they should not be. In every great development known to the world there have been many martyrs. The steam locomotive collected its toll of death. So have the electric cars, telephones, automobiles and every other device that has added to the general comfort and convenience of the world. When it is realized that hundreds of persons lose their lives annually in efforts that could not possibly bring any benefit to the world, even if successful, it is quite evident that beneficial sciences cannot and should not be halted by the rumblings from the valley of death.

The best battleships in the United States navy may be quite impotent against the aeroplanes of foreign nations a few years from now. The United States must keep step with the march of progress. There are those who claim that the utility of aeroplanes for war has never been proved, but if this country had accepted only what had been actually proved to be useful no progress ever would have been made.

Supplying each battleship with an aeroplane will be but the first step in the task that confronts the navy. The great problem of the navy will be to prove the utility of the air fleet and it is to be hoped that in proving it no sensational experiments will be attempted, but that a conscientious effort will be made to develop the new science along the lines that will lead to the greatest safety.—Washington

In the window of a Clark street restaurant there was a sign which read: "Second cook wanted." An applicant made his way to the kitchen and found the head cook.

"There's the boss over there," said the gallery chief, jerking his head in the direction of a man washing dishes. "Don't let me," said the caller. "Tell me if you want me or tell me if you don't. There's no use of ringing in a dish washer."

"The man at the sink picked a stack of plates out of the water and let them all fall to the floor with a smash. 'Now,' he exclaimed, 'tell me who you think the boss is!'"—Chicago Post.

The Store Beautiful

The Oakland Cherry's store is a success because the opening days of this store have proven that the people of Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda and Richmond welcome it gladly. It is a pleasure for them to co-operate with Cherry's in making this store the premier women's apparel store of Oakland. Women and men feel at home in all the Cherry's stores. The arrangements and methods of all these stores are the same.

"It makes me happy to think that it is no longer necessary to go to San Francisco to find what I want. You have moved San Francisco to Oakland in your special lines," said a woman to a Cherry's saleswoman on the opening day. In the salesrooms every day in Cherry's store you will find groups of appreciative women who are grateful that Cherry's have given Oakland this store of service. GERMANY TO BE A REPUBLIC

"My son will be the last of the emperors," Kaiser Wilhelm is said to have told the historian, Karl von Krosigk, recently. "All the world will be republican within fifty years. Germany will be the last of the empires. It is inevitable." The Kaiser is credited with being a far-sighted politician as well as an able upholder of his prerogatives as a sovereign. He sees the drift of the times as other crowned heads see it. Monarchy is passing, even in England. It has passed in France and Portugal; it has become merely nominal in other European countries. Even China has become a republic. Germany is conservative on the subject, no doubt, because it has had excellent rulers. From an American point of view it seems likely to be the last nation to change, as the Kaiser prophesies—to be even later than Russia.

Monarchism, like feudalism, has had a proper place in the evolution of civilization, but like feudalism, it must go. There have been a few real kings and queens whose work for the world has been great, and the ideal of kingship, as Carlyle points it, inspires high sentiments and noble deeds. But this is an age in which kings and queens have little to do and in which education is so widely diffused as to make the real leaders recognizable as the need of them arises. The world progresses politically as it progresses materially, intellectually and morally.—Chicago Record-Herald.

PROFESSOR TELLS CAUSE OF POVERTY

Dr. Peixotto Declares Thirty Per Cent Live Under Adverse Conditions.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Sept. 13.—Professor Peixotto's class on the cause of poverty made its first visit to the San Francisco settlement this afternoon. "Twenty or thirty per cent of all the people live under conditions more or less adverse during the hours spent at home, at work or at leisure," said Miss Jessica R. Peixotto, in her last lecture to her class this week. "From these adverse conditions spring most of the causes of poverty."

Among these causes Dr. Peixotto mentioned imprisonment, which she declared almost always makes a dependent family. Another cause occasionally operative was said to be the failure of children to assume responsibility for the parents. One was cited where a woman with a great sacrifice brought up a boy and other children, and the boy, who is now earning between $45 and $50 per month, refuses to give one cent to the home. He is willing to take the sister or the family out on Saturday nights as the other boys do and to contribute to the room and meals, but not to contribute otherwise to the support of the family.

"Laziness," said Dr. Peixotto, "is another cause of poverty, which is properly a disease and not a vicious habit. When we find a man or woman persistently lazy we may be sure they are suffering from some serious disease. People in good health are naturally active and want to be doing something."

"The San Francisco earthquake gave a tragic number of unemployed women whose homes were destroyed and who, lacking both money and borrowing capacity, were totally unable to do anything for more than a pittance. Some were able to paint dinner cards or to do very delicate embroidery, but not to do the things that people needed to have done and were willing to pay for."

"Is foolish," said Dr. Peixotto, in closing her lecture, "to be ashamed to have it known that one is receiving aid from a charity organization society. Some people live on charity who would die to have it known. To be in trouble is not a disgrace. To live on another's alms is disgraceful. There are any number of things which are ashamed to have it known that one is receiving aid from a charity organization society, but we are pauperizing our friends every time we encourage this course of life. If we have received help we ought to give encouragement to the workers by letting it be known."

DIX AND WILSON TALK POLITICS

Democratic Nominee's Support in Campaign Not Asked, Statement.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 13.—Democratic state who had charge of the arrangements for the visit to Syracuse yesterday of Governor Wilson took exception to the nominee's reported statement that if he had known the Democratic State Committee and county chairmen were to have met here the day he was to visit the state fair he probably would not have accepted the invitation, as he wished to avoid participation in the internal politics of any state.

Francis Kernan, at whose home Governor Dix was entertained during his stay here, made public a letter today from J. P. Tumulty, Governor Wilson's secretary, dated September 9, expressing regret that the nominee could not remain in Syracuse last evening to attend a dinner which had been arranged by Mr. Kernan. John A. Mason, secretary to Governor Dix, and secretary of the state committee, declared today there has been no understanding with Governor Wilson.

Governor Dix, questioned as to his conference yesterday with Governor Wilson, today said they discussed the general situation, but that he did not ask Governor Wilson's support in his campaign for re-election. He said Governor Wilson was held in high esteem by the Democratic organization in this state. If Charles E. Murphy was at all put out by Governor Wilson's attitude toward him yesterday he gave no indication of it today.

AT 80, WEDS WOMAN
HE LOST 37 YEARS AGO

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 13.—Bridging a gap of 27 years, John McCrellis, 80 years old, of New Brunswick, N. J., has finally married the woman he had won and lost in 1855. Mr. McCrellis was engaged to marry a girl more than a quarter of a century ago. He had given her a diamond engagement ring, but a man named Charles Davis appeared and the girl married him instead of McCrellis. Davis died and his widow will keep the ring McCrellis had given her.

McCrellis met his lost sweetheart recently, and although he is now 80 years old, they agreed to forget the past. The ring was replaced on Mrs. Jane Davis' finger, and they were married in the Davis' home at No. 25 Grand street, Rahway, N. J.

Mrs. Mary Frank of Hahway attended the bride, and the bridegroom's brother, Cornelius McCrellis, street commissioner of New Brunswick, was best man. McCrellis came to New Brunswick in 1949 and has made considerable money as a blacksmith.

JAPANESE GATHER FOR SHINTO SERVICE

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 13.—More than 600 Japanese are gathered this afternoon in the First Congregational Church, one of the most aristocratic in San Diego, to participate in the shinto service in honor of the memorial of the dead Emperor of Japan. The services began at 2 o'clock under the direction of five Japanese, who acted as the shinto priests. This is the first time it is stated, a church in San Diego has been used for service of a religious faith not Christian. The full shinto service is being conducted on the Japanese training ship (later) later also.

EARTH EATING QUE TO HOOK WORM

In Olden Days the Indians Ate Clay as Delicacy for Food.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—One of the most odious characteristics of Southern "crookers" as they were described by a few years ago, is the habit of chewing earth or clay. When Dr. Stiles of the Public Health Service, discovered that the low mental and physical condition of these people was due almost entirely to the ravages of the hookworm, we learned at the same time that the earth eating was but a manifestation of a perverted appetite, the perversion being due to the action of the parasites on the food canal. Whether all earth eaters suffer from some internal parasite is not known, but the practice of eating earth is much more widespread than the hookworm is known to be.

The practice is not confined to any race or region of the world, says "The Scientific American." In America several tribes of Indians, of the northern as well as of the Southern continent, are given to using earth as food. The Pawnee Indians used a yellowish clay, which they shaped into little balls, they were allowed to dry in the air and were then slowly roasted at the open fire. When the clay attained a red color the balls were removed, moistened with water and eaten. These clay balls were especially liked when served in connection with fish and seem to have promoted digestion.

The Timucua Indians of the MacKenzie river used to resort to the earth as food to times of famine. They dug out the clay, found in the hollows along the banks of the river. In prosperous years they chewed the clay as a delicacy.

The Apaches mixed powdered clay into their meat before baking this into their rude loaves of bread. In the United States the Indians in the uplands of Bolivia ate a light clay that is nearly white in color. This they used either raw or in the form of cakes of various shapes, which are sold in the market places. They also prepare a sauce with the clay, they eat with boiled potatoes.

Among the negroes of the Guinea coast as well as among those in West Africa, the eating of clay is very common. The natives in the Sudan dig their favorite clay from between layers of sandstone in the banks of the rivers. The natives of Java prepare little cakes of clay containing ocher; these are sold in the public markets.

The "halary Alnus," the aborigines of Northern Japan, mix clay with their rice and with the leaves of various plants which they use as food. In Persia varieties of clay are considered delicious luxuries among certain classes, while in the foothills of the Himalayas the natives are constantly chewing a greenish clay which they believe has the property of protecting them against the Solter.

PULL OUT A HAIR

The Way to Tell Whether or Not Your Hair Is Diseased

Even if you have a luxuriant head of hair you may want to know whether it is in a healthy condition or not. Ninety-eight per cent of the people need a hair tonic. You can make a test yourself that you can see and understand, which will tell you whether your hair is healthy or not. Pull a hair out of your head, if the bulb at the end of the root is white and shrunken, it proves that the hair is diseased and requires prompt treatment. If it is loss would be avoided. If the bulb is pink and full, the hair is healthy.

We want everyone whose hair requires treatment to try our "33" Hair Tonic. We promise that it will not cost anything if it does not give satisfactory results. "33" Hair Tonic is designed to overcome dandruff, relieve scalp irritation, stimulate the hair roots, lighten the hair and in the head, grow hair and eradicate baldness.

Out of 100 cases where it was given a thorough, conscientious test, it grew hair on 83 heads, which should be sufficient proof that "33" Hair Tonic is a hair tonic of extraordinary remedial and hair-growing qualities. It is because of our knowledge of this preparation and our sincere faith in its goodness that we want you to try it at our risk.

"33" Hair Tonic is a clean, clear preparation which does not grease, gum or thicken the hair, and it has a very pleasant odor. We have it in two sizes, prices 50c and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain "33" Hair Tonic only at The Owl Drug Co. stores in Oakland, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Sacramento, Portland, Seattle, Spokane.

'BOMB' IS FRESH; DANGER IS NIL

Chicago Police Near Panic in Presence of Instrument of Destruction.

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—Conditions in a West Side police station bordered on panic last night when Dr. W. F. Schreyer carefully placed before the desk sergeant a wooden box with the announcement that it contained a dynamite bomb.

The box had been found on the doorstep of his home by his mother, he explained, and he was of the opinion it had been placed there by a notoriety who had threatened violence for some fancied grievance.

A dozen policemen tiptoed toward the door while the desk sergeant backed away. A lieutenant summoned three or four of his men and the box was placed in a tub of water and left there to soak for half an hour. Then it was pried open by one of the policemen and there came signs of relief when it was found to contain eggs. The doctor then remembered that one mother had expected such a package as well as one containing dynamite.

"EDUCATION IN UNBELIEF." KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 13.—"Our western bringing-up is an education in unbelief," said Laura Radford, a Y. W. C. A. worker of Calcutta, India, in an address before the membership committee of the organization here today. Miss Radford attacked the higher educational methods of the United States.

DON'T WORRY ABOUT YOUR HEART

Most people who have heart disease do not know it. Most people who think they have heart disease, haven't. They only think so. Pain in the region of the heart is mistakenly supposed to be a symptom of heart disease.

Just as pain in the back seldom or never indicates kidney trouble, so pain near the heart is scarcely ever present in organic heart disease. This pain is nearly always from the stomach which is connected with the heart by many nerves.

When Your Digestion Is Disordered

It often affects the heart and even causes an irregularity in its beat. The gas produced by undigested and fermenting food may cause pressure that affects the heart unpleasantly. But these pains do not mean that you have heart disease or need fear sudden death. Try toning up the stomach and learn how quickly and surely you lose the fear of heart disease.

Tone Up the Stomach

Correct any errors of diet. Eat the right things and not too much of them. If you do not know what the right things are, send for our diet book. It is free. Don't starve yourself and don't pamper your stomach with pre-digested food and artificial aids to digestion. Tone up your stomach so it will do its own proper work, don't worry about your heart or anything else (worry causes and aggravates indigestion) and you will be well and happy.

By Using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

you get improvement with the first dose. First you notice an increase in your appetite. Then you see that the food does not distress you, that you are no longer troubled with gas, sour risings in the throat and those misleading pains around the heart. Strength and energy return and the rich red blood, bearing the full amount of nourishment yielded by food, carries renewed vitality to every organ of the body.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or direct by mail, postpaid, 50 cents per box; six boxes, $2.50. For the diet book write to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

GREENLAND CROSSED BY SWISS EXPEDITION

COPENHAGEN, Sept. 13.—Greenland has been crossed for the first time from west to east over the barren ice by a Swiss expedition under Dr. De Quervain, joint director of the Swiss Central Meteorological Institute, who is now at Reykjavik, the capital of Iceland. All members of the party are well. The expedition started from Jakobshavn, in Danish Northwest Greenland, and marched for three months over ice wastes. They made the east coast on August 20, ten miles from Angungssalik, which was their goal.

Many valuable scientific results were achieved. The greatest height of the island measured 2500 meters, but they saw higher peaks recently and discovered mountains on Christian Ninth Land, nearer the east coast.

Dr. De Quervain will hold the material he has collected until he is able to make comparisons with the results of the Danish expedition under Captain J. P. Koch, which will cross from west to east in 1913, but by a more northern route.

VANDERBILT FORTUNE AGAIN AIDS SZECHENYI

BUDAPEST, Sept. 13.—According to local newspapers, Vanderbilt funds are once again being employed to pay Szechenyi debts, this time for no less a defaulter than the Bishop of Grosswardein, Count Szechenyi. He owes, it is asserted, over $100,000, but was left a fortune by Cardinal Samassa, who died recently. This prelate, however, placed a peculiar clause in his will that none of its beneficiaries should be in debt.

The Vanderbilt remittance will enable him to collect this bequest.

LIQUOR TRANSPORTATION THREATENED BY WEST

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 13.—That he intends to stop carrying liquor by transportation companies from "wet" to "dry" territory and that if it becomes necessary to stop the business he will call out the militia, was a declaration made by Governor West yesterday when he was advised that the railroad commission held that it could find no law prohibiting transportation companies from carrying on such a business and had asked the attorney general for an opinion on the subject.

BUILDING PROGRAM INTERESTS PUBLIC

The Board of Education to Announce Policy on General Contracts Tonight.

Evidence of the public's interest in the building program of the Oakland School Department was shown last night by the crowded lobby of men and women which greeted last night's session of the board of education.

Representatives were present from the General Contractors Association, the sub-contractors, the Thirteenth Avenue Improvement Club, the Lockwood School Mothers' Club, and the Twenty-third avenue district east of Lake Merritt. Architect J. J. Donovan's plan of building the sixteen new schools under the terms of general contracts was responsible for the presence of the contractors, who secured the promise of a special meeting for this evening at 5 o'clock, when the board is expected to definitely announce its policy.

The Thirteenth Avenue Improvement Club has selected a site on Twelfth avenue which it considers desirable for the location of a new elementary school, and the directors agreed to visit the property before the middle of next week.

Mrs. William Callahan, president of the Lockwood Mothers' Club, secured the board's promise to make necessary repairs to that school and to hasten the plans for the new building.

URGES BUILDING HASTE.

Mrs. M. J. Lane, a pioneer club woman and civic worker of the annexed district, urged haste in constructing the new school that is to be built in the Twenty-third avenue district, and which will relieve the congested conditions at the Garfield school. She declared that many parents in her district were keeping their little children at home rather than run the risk of sending them to a school where they had to cross a hazardous car track and dodge the traffic of Fourteenth street. She was supported in her arguments by a dozen mothers of the same district.

The proposed school will have six class rooms and an auditorium. The plans were practically completed yesterday, according to City Supervisor Architect J. J. Donovan. They will be presented as soon as the specifications have been completed.

The board agreed upon Donovan's recommendation to increase the time allowed for building the Fremont High School addition to 125 working days instead of 100.

CULEBRA EARTH SLIDES WORRY

16,500,000 Cubic Yards of Trouble Made for Canal Engineers.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—Earth slides in Culebra cut on the Panama canal have amounted to 16,500,000 cubic yards since the excavation of the cut began. These slides represent not less than 10 per cent of the total amount of earth and rock that so far has been removed from the cut and would keep the excavating force at work at least half a year. The engineers have found no absolutely effective means to prevent the slides. A process of terracing the banks has been found best.

Excavation on the canal during August amounted to 2,443,353 cubic yards, or 19,074 cubic yards less than excavated in July. There was one inch more of rainfall during August, which helped to cause the reduction. Concrete laying during August amounted to 89,879 cubic yards, compared with 87,485 cubic yards in July.

BOOTH MEMORIAL TO BE BIG TRAINING SCHOOL

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Commander Eva Booth, daughter of the late General Booth, founder and head of the Salvation Army, who was recently buried in London, returned yesterday on the White Star line steamship Majestic after having made a hurried trip to England.

Commander Booth said it had been determined by the sons and daughters of the dead leader that in every land where the Salvation Army is established such a memorial to her father's memory would be erected. In this city it would take the form of a training school for army workers.

They are expected to recommend an appropriation of $150,000 to save Lake Contrary, the scene of St. Joseph's beautiful summer resort, from destruction by the cutting in of the river.

DEAD CAPITALIST PAID $10,000 FOR GOLD BRICK

SEATTLE, Sept. 13.—A $10,000 gold brick swindle perpetrated three years ago on W. K. Major, a wealthy resident of South Bend, Wash., who has since died, was disclosed yesterday when a cheese-shaped "brick" weighing 100 pounds was declared at the United States Assay Office here to be made of an excellent grade of copper coated with a thick layer of pure gold.

Major, who is believed to have bought the gold from a half-breed Mexican, who visited him three years ago, evidently discovered that he had been swindled but did not complain and the operations of the confidence man were brought to light only when his widow began an investigation of an apparent $10,000 shortage in her husband's estate.

SUFFRAGISTS DROP SUPPORTER OF T. R.

RENO, Sept. 13.—Because she accepted membership in the Woman's Progressive league and openly espoused the cause of Theodore Roosevelt, Mrs. Margaret Mayberry Martin, an active member of the Nevada Equal Franchise society, was asked to hand in her resignation, and she did.

Miss Anne Martin, president of the society, who was jailed in London for engaging in the militant suffragette riots, in that city, issued a statement yesterday afternoon to the effect that Mrs. Martin was no longer a member of the society, having violated that portion of the society's rules that prohibits the endorsement of a political party. Mrs. Bridges and Mrs. Tennard signed the statement as secretaries.

LYLE MARRIED HIS NURSE. NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Relatives of the late John A. Lyle, who at his death at the age of 84 left $10,000,000 to Julia Gertrude Hannan, a nurse, were surprised in their plans for a will contest yesterday when the attorney for the millionaire during his life brought to light the marriage of Miss Hannan and Lyle. The estate is valued at $40,000,000, and Miss Hannan was made sole executrix without bond. Attorneys Menken, for the estate, announced that Lyle and Miss Hannan were married December 20, 1910, a year and a half after the death of Lyle's first wife.

Don't Poison Baby.

FORTY YEARS AGO almost every mother thought her child must have PAREGORIC or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and a FEW DROPS TOO MANY will produce the SLEEP FROM WHICH THERE IS NO WAKING. Many babies have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labeling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrup," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without your or your physician know of what it is composed. CASTORIA DOES NOT CONTAIN NARCOTICS, if it bears the signature of J. C. FLETCHER. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of J. C. FLETCHER.

FRESHMEN GIVEN ROYAL WELCOME

Record Crowd Attends Annual Rally at Greek Theater; Prof. Stephens Speaks.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Sept. 13.—Before one of the biggest crowds ever seen at the Greek theater the student body and faculty of the University extended a royal welcome to incoming members of the freshmen class last night. The rally this year was a big success. The principal speech of the evening was made by Professor Henry Morse Stephens, head of the history department, this being the first time he has ever addressed an incoming class.

The first year students were instructed in the manner of properly conducting affairs on the campus and officially welcomed by C. M. Torrey, president of the Associated Students, J. A. Stroud, captain of the 1912 varsity football team, spoke on the athletic situation on the campus this year, and the prospects for football material from the freshmen class.

Professor W. C. Stephens also addressed the entering class on general topics.

The musical program was featured by A. W. Heen and J. R. Douglas in solos on strings and piano, selections by the University Cadet band, Mandolin club, Glee club and the University quartet. The favorite California songs were sung by the audience.

The entire theater was illuminated by a bonfire, which was kept blazing despite the excessive heat, which was evident before the torch was applied. A big stack of barrels and boxes was burned. The students serenaded from the theater, this presenting a pretty spectacle.

VISITING SAVANTS ADDRESS STUDENTS

Visitors to Be Excluded From University Meetings in the Future.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Sept. 13.—Students of the University were given an opportunity to hear two of the nation's foremost savants, Dr. Arthur C. McGiffert, the medical expert from Harvard Medical School, and Dr. Richard C. Cabot, the medical expert from Harvard Medical School, New York, addressed the regular university meeting at Harmon gymnasium last night.

Beginning today all outsiders were excluded from the meeting. In the future all meetings of students at Harmon gymnasium will be reserved exclusively for the students and members of the faculty. This is according to the edict sent out by the university authorities today. It is claimed that this step is made necessary because of the limited number of seats in the gymnasium and the number of students enrolled this year.

The Daily Californian, the student paper, commenting editorially on the matter says: "University meetings strictly Californian, the step has been taken and one of the chief drawbacks of the Friday morning gatherings abolished. Nobody bothered the Berkeley public participation in the good things of the university; California spirit is not as narrow as that. But the presence of outsiders is not particularly desirable at these meetings."

At the meeting today, both speakers dealt on subjects of interest to the students, discharging to some extent their methods of keeping close to their favorite subjects. Music was furnished by the university cadet band.

COUNCIL MAY REFUSE TOWBOAT CO.'S OFFER

ALAMEDA, Sept. 13.—That the city council will in all probability refuse the offer of the Crowley Launch and Towboat Company to lease 1000 feet of water front lot facing Oakland harbor will be decided in the meeting of Mayor V. E. Nor today. The mayor states that in his opinion it would be foolish to lease the property for ten years at the rate of $500 a month, which is the offer of the company. The lot is owned by the city and is situated on the east side of the harbor, near the bridge.

The matter will probably come up for final decision at the meeting of the council tonight.

MASON W. DONALDSON WAS WELL KNOWN RAILROAD MAN

MASON W. DONALDSON, SANTA FE FREIGHT OFFICIAL, WHO IS DEAD AT HIS HOME IN ALAMEDA.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 13.—Mason W. Donaldson, who died in this city Wednesday, was a well known railroad man, having been connected with several California lines. For the last six years he was contracting freight agent in Oakland for the Santa Fe. Formerly he was connected with the Southern Pacific and with the Valley Road.

Donaldson started railroading when 17 years old as an operator with the Southern Pacific, being stationed at First and Broadway. He was with the Valley line for 18 months, then returned to the Southern Pacific. Six years ago he transferred to the Santa Fe.

Donaldson was a member of Apollo lodge of Masons of this city and of the Transportation club, being one of the best known members of the club. He is survived by a wife, Mrs. Mabel Scott Donaldson, a mother, Mrs. A. Donaldson, and two children. He was a native of California, being born at Vacaville, and was 40 years of age. He will be buried tomorrow under the auspices of Apollo lodge, the funeral services being from Masonic hall at 2:30 o'clock.

BODY AT MORGUE IS IDENTIFIED

Is That of Beecher Stowe, Who Was Missing From Home for Ten Days.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 13.—The body at the Alameda branch morgue, rescued from the bay on Wednesday, was identified this morning as that of Beecher Stowe of 2519 Bush street, San Francisco. The identification was made by two sons of Stowe, who had been searching for their father for ten days and who saw reports in the press of the finding of the body.

Stowe is believed to have jumped into the water while in a despondent mood, which affected his mind. He died heavily the last two years over the death of a daughter. He was married to a wife and four children. The children are O. F., B. S., Frank and Anna Stowe. One of the sons is Dr. Oscar Stowe of the Wells Fargo building in San Francisco. He lived in San Francisco for 25 years. Stowe was born in Santa Clara county and was 60 years of age. His parents dying when he was a small child. One of the sons said that his father was not related to Harriet Beecher Stowe or Henry Ward Beecher, the California family being a separate branch of the Stowe and Beecher families.

Stowe was missing from home for ten days, or at least for discussion, and Mayor Nor says he will emphatically oppose the granting of the body.

PREDICTS BIG GAIN IN ASSESSMENTS

Assessor Harry Squires Says Berkeley Rolls Steadily Increase.

BERKELEY, Sept. 13.—City Assessor Harry J. Squires predicts that the next year will mean an increase of fully $2,000,000 in the assessment roll of this city. According to his figures the rolls for 1913-14 should show assessments amounting to approximately $42,000,000.

The assessments for the fiscal year ending July 1, 1913, will amount to $39,810,000, this being considered a wonderful increase over figures for former years. The prediction for the year 1913-14 is based on the fact that the increase in improvements and, therefore, real estate values, means that an increase of $2,000,000 in assessments is considered a conservative estimate.

The city assessor has already started assessing real estate for the fiscal year 1913-14, and when he has finished that work he will begin on the improvements. On the first Monday in March next year he will forward blanks to owners of secured and unsecured personal property to fill out. The rapid rise in assessments shows that the city is making a wonderful progress in all lines.

NOTED SPEAKER LECTURES ON GOD

"The Imminence of God" Was Subject of Second of Lecture Series.

BERKELEY, Sept. 13.—Dr. Arthur C. McGiffert, who is delivering a series of lectures on the E. T. Earl foundation, spoke last night on "The Imminence of God." It was the second lecture in the series, the general theme of which is "The Rise of Religious Ideas."

He said in part: "The people of the present day have a tendency to look upon God more from within than from without, and this new idea has broken down in a great measure the old ideas of transcendence. The old angelicism, though we may regard it as a forgotten article of faith and a theology of the darker religious period of modern times, has led the way to the present belief in the divine imminence of God. 'Strange as it may seem to non-Catholic people, the pope himself has helped to spread the doctrine of divine imminence. It is evolution, the transcendental belief of former days. As Darwinism was an evolution from the older scientific ideas, and as his work on the evolution of species marked a new path for scientific workers, so has the more modernized transcendental dogmas and theologies marked the way for the present acceptance of divine imminence."

The doctrine of divine imminence has overcome the old faith that science has not attempted. We must admit the value of science even in religion, for although Darwinism seemed for a time to be attempting the overthrow of religion, it really said that great evolution, for science also aided the church to evolution in religious ideas.

"In the dark ages of the world, following the almost total dissolution of Christian Rome, God's transcendentalism was believed in, but with the evolution of civilization and the broader spread of education, both religious and secular, the imminence of God became more recognized."

The effect of the reactionary period is shown on present day doctrine. The indwelling God is an article of faith, not a vision. The present day Christians recognize this fully.

"The middle age Christians, whose spiritual sight has been obscured to a great extent by the carnal forces around him, saw God only as a transcendental being."

LOCAL STORE CHANGES OWNERSHIP

Leightons, in Arcade Building,
Taken Over by Eastern Capitalist.

Mr. F. W. Brome, formerly of New York, has taken over the cloak, suit and millinery establishment of Leightons, located in the Arcade building, Twentieth and San Pablo.

Mr. Brome plans many new innovations and will be pleased to meet and talk with all of Mr. Leightons' old customers. A new and complete stock is now on the road here from the East and in order to make room for these new lines an absolute clearance of all the old stock is necessary. This forces the prices way below a profit basis and in many cases below cost, so that there is nothing in the store at present from the cloak and suit department to the notion department that will not be sold at great bargain prices.

ATTORNEY WILL DIRECT OWN FIGHT

B. W. Gibson Appears in Own Behalf When Arraigned on Murder Charge.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Sept. 13.—The fight which Burton W. Gibson, the New York lawyer, will make for his life, he said today, will be directed entirely by himself. He appeared in his own behalf when arraigned today before county Judge Rorer on the charge of murdering Mrs. Rosa Meschik Szabo, his Viennese client, who met death while bustling with him on Greenwood Lake, sixteen miles from here, on July 16.

Gibson's examination was postponed today until September 24, on application of District Attorney Rogers.

DEED SECURED BY FRAUD, IS CHARGE

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—In the Superior Court today John McFadden declared, in a suit to set aside a deed executed by Ellen Foley, now dead, that the deed which involves a $12,000 property on Jones, near Jackson street, was secured by Catherine Craven through threats and intimidations.

RAILROAD PLANS WORK ON AVENUE

Santa Fe and East Shore Will Make Changes Uniting
City of Richmond.

RICHMOND, Sept. 13.—City Engineer W. S. Farley, while in San Francisco yesterday, held a conference with the Santa Fe officials there relative to the improvement of Ashland avenue, the one improvement more than any other that has kept the two towns of Richmond from growing together into one city in fact as well as one in municipal government. It has been hanging here for two years or more.

According to the officials a call for bids for the work has been made by the company and contracts for the paving and other improvements will commence within ten days. No further delays will be allowed to occur, the railroad officials declare. Having been notified by the Oakland Traction company that it is ready to go ahead with the moving of its tracks from the present county road to Ashland avenue as soon as it gets word from the Santa Fe that this can be done along with the other improvement work that the railroad company will do in connection with paving the avenue.

A proviso in the paving contract will make it necessary to complete the improvement of the street by the first of the year. The citizens of both east and west Richmond are rejoicing that at last the much-needed improvement is to be realized, and that, in consequence, the town will soon grow into one solid city. The improvement of Cutting boulevard and the building of the Southern Pacific electric on that thoroughfare will also tend to cement the east and west sections of the city.

WOMAN BATTLES TO RECOVER HER CHILD

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—Mrs. Alice Schruder, who lives at Oak and Fillmore streets, began a battle today by means of habeas corpus proceedings for the custody of her 4-year-old daughter, Dallas, who is in the custody of W. A. Freeman and his wife, 1345 Twelfth avenue. According to Mrs. Schruder she lived with her three children in Tennessee up to four years ago when Mrs. Freeman urged them to come here and put them into a home after Mrs. Schruder's husband had deserted her. Being out of work was forced to place the children in an orphan asylum. She says Mrs. Schruder took Dallas from the institution. The Freemans assert that the mother has been guilty of misconduct and therefore the child is a delinquent, and should be taken from her care. Judge McFadden has taken the case under advisement.

SOCIAL WORKERS NEEDED, SAYS DR. R. C. CABOT

Noted Speaker Is the Guest of Honor at Associated Charities Banquet

The profession of the social worker, his trials and his triumphs, were featured in an interesting address last night given by Dr. Richard C. Cabot, guest of honor at the first annual banquet given by the Associated Charities of Oakland.

One hundred couples gathered in the Ebell Club house on Harrison street where the banquet was served early in the evening. They listened to the address of the noted speaker, Dr. Cabot, who is head of Harvard Medical College and has achieved national fame and distinction in the field of social service.

DISCUSSES PROFESSION.

Discussing the profession represented by those seated at the table, Dr. Cabot said:

"In what is the social worker's profession? It is his field. To know what can be done for the people in trouble is his specialty. He is like a department of accidents and repairs in a railroad. Weeks, their prevention and cure, is his business and he assumes no superiority other than that of knowing his business.

Misfortunes, often leading to poverty, are usually of seven types—sickness, alcoholism, ignorance, nervous troubles, sex troubles and unmanageable children. To alleviate or to prevent these, the social worker must have, at his finger ends, three sets of facts—the institutions of her city (hospitals, reformatories, canyons, homes and training schools), the psychology of people in trouble and the exact history of the disaster in hand. Investigation along these lines is often resented, just as a patient often rebels at the doctor's slow and methodical questioning, when a remedy to stop a pain is all they want. But doctor and social worker must examine thoroughly, though never heartlessly, if they are to avoid doing harm.

"Poverty can be relieved by giving money, just as pain can be suppressed by morphine, but what is behind? What causes the poverty and pain? Money and morphine will not reach that. Study

DR. DAY LOSES BIG FIGHT OF EIGHT YEARS

Forced to Resign to Forestall
Removal an Annoyance to Friends.

HERESY CHARGES BROUGHT LONG AGO

Denies Teachings Ascribed to Him by the Synod
of 1911.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—After eight years of battling for beliefs too advanced for the Presbyterian synod of California, Dr. Thomas F. Day, gray professor of testament history and Hebrew at the San Francisco Theological seminary, has resigned and is today on his way to Europe. The fight to oust Dr. Day has lasted eight years. He has never receded from his position and his resignation, now is merely to forestall removal, annoyance to his friends and embarrassment to the seminary.

At each annual meeting of the synod the "Day heresy charges," as they came to be known, were a subject of debate. For six years his defense was successful. But the opposition gained strength and two years ago at Fresno the synod instructed the board of directors of the seminary to request his resignation. The board refused to obey.

DR. RADER TALKS.

What ensued may be told in the words of Dr. William Rader, pastor of Calvary Presbyterian church, a close friend and supporter of Dr. Day, but chairman of a committee which recently waited on him to advise his resignation.

"As far as the terms of liberal directors of the seminary expired," said Dr. Rader, "their places were filled with conservative directors. At the last meeting of the board Dr. Day had a majority of but one. It became apparent that at the next meeting the majority would be on the other side."

"Dr. Day wanted to fight it out. As chairman of a committee of his friends I showed him that he had no chance, and that moreover, to pledge his friends to continued support would mean their ultimate elimination from the board of directors, greatly to the embarrassment of the seminary, which needs the support of men of prominence and wide influence. He was greatly surprised, but he assented. His friends believe that his resignation will help, not hurt him."

IN CHAIR EIGHTEEN YEARS.

For eighteen years Dr. Day has held his chair. The specific charges brought against him by the synod of 1911 were that he taught:

"That God never interrupted the orderly workings of nature."

"That accounts of miracles in the Bible are to be so explained that the occurrences may be regarded as having taken place according to known laws of nature, and that if this cannot be done the accounts are to be regarded as false. That during the ages before Christ no one had any idea of the coming of such a savior as the Christ of the New Testament."

"That passages in the Old Testament which are regarded as predictions concerning Christ are not really such."

BRANDED SPURIOUS.

"That passages in the New Testament which are regarded as teaching that Christ's life and work were fulfillment of prophecy are either misinterpreted or spurious."

"That the stories of Jonah, of the three Hebrews in the furnace and of Daniel in the den of lions are parables."

Dr. Day denied these charges.

"I believe in miracles," he told the synod. "To say that God cannot do what he wills in His own world is less complimentary than to call Him an absentee God. He works with the freedom of a sovereign."

"His freedom is not curtailed, but is rather expressed by the orderly workings of nature; but it finds expression in those extraordinary acts of His will and power which we call miracles."

CLUB OWNED BY BROKER OPPOSED

Number of Prominent Men
Mentioned as Frequenting
the Place.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—A delegation from the Sunset district adjoining the Ocean Beach, appeared before assistant District Attorney Roland Boessey to protest against a club at 1363 Forty-eighth avenue, operated by Samuël Helman, a wealthy realty broker of this city. When Helman mentioned the names of a number of prominent persons as among those who visited his resort and said that there were night orgies and revels in the place, no action was taken by the authorities.

The complainants were Rev. Robert Webb, W. H. Campbell of 1320 Forty-eighth avenue and R. Roemer of 1450 Forty-seventh avenue, who claim that young girls were admitted to the place, and that liquor was consumed.

As witnesses in his behalf, Helman called John Brummond, whom it developed, was the owner of the Lodge, and C. Handerson, who owned the property where Ono Club was conducted. This place was recently closed. The district attorney has taken the whole matter under advisement.

MAYOR WOULD NOT DOCK EMPLOYEES FOR ABSENCE

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—In a letter directed to City Attorney Long, Mayor Rolph today commends the resolution of the Board of Election Commissioners that employees be not docked for illness and short absences from duty.

"I am in favor of all employees in the city government being allowed an annual holiday," said the mayor, "and I furthermore think it unjust to deduct an employee's wage for a few days' absence."

The situation of Thomas V. Calor, an employee who by reason of a death in his family, had been forced to take two days off and was deprived of his salary, was taken by the mayor.

BODY IS SIGHTED FLOATING IN BAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—H. B. Gregory, a captain of the Southern Pacific steamer, while on the ferry boat, sighted a body floating in the bay not far from Goat Island while he was on his way from the Oakland pier this morning. Gregory was too far off to get a good glimpse of the corpse, but he satisfied himself that it was a man and promptly notified the Harbor police on his arrival. The patrol boat was sent out to search for the body and tow it ashore.

'LORD' T. B. HENRY IS FOUND GUILTY

Felony Embezzlement Charge
Proved Against Realty
Dealer.

"Lord" Thomas B. Henry was found guilty of felony embezzlement by jury before Superior Judge Elworth after ten minutes retirement from the courtroom last yesterday. He will be sentenced next Tuesday. Three other informations against him remain to be tried and it is possible that the assistant District Attorney H. L. Hynes will continue them indefinitely unless Henry appeals from his present conviction.

The charge upon which the jury found him guilty was that of obtaining $100 from J. F. Claussen on a forged release of a mortgage that he had given E. B. Rollins. At the time of the exchange Rollins was taken down and Henry had a copy of the release signed up and signed Rollins to it. He explained on the witness stand that the failure of his stenographer to mark "copy" on the document had placed him in the predicament in which he found himself. The jury did not believe the statement and as that was the strongest portion of his technical defense the verdict was found against him.

The last two were sent as delegates to the Republican convention at Chicago and refused seats by the national committee on contests.

GLASS PERMITTED TO LEAVE STATE

Telephone Official to Promote Corporation in the Philippines.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—Superior Judge Lawlor this morning signed an order granting permission to Louis Glass, former vice-president and general manager of the Pacific Telephone company, to leave California for a period of two months, Glass was to have been tried beginning next Monday on a charge of bribery, but the fact that Theodore V. Halkey, star witness in out of the state and cannot be located, and E. J. Zimmerman, former auditor for the corporation, is in Europe, led the court to consent to a continuance.

The case of Glass was about to be dismissed two months ago when the indictments were quashed against Halkey and Judge Lawlor thought it best to call one more trial of the defendant.

The failure to locate the main witness, however, would render such a proceeding useless at present.

Glass will leave San Francisco September 14 for the Philippine islands, where he is engaged in promoting a telephone corporation and has large interests.

ALBANY APPOINTS MUTE POUNDMAN

Aiva Stewart Wants to Sell Town Lots for Pound Site.

ALBANY, Sept. 13.—Backed by the women's clubs of the town, Aiva Stewart, a mute, has secured a position as poundman for the town. He now wants to sell the town lots for which to use as a place for the pound. This matter will be settled later.

Albany has needed one for some months, and the matter has been brought to the attention of the town trustees several times, especially by the Albany Women's Club, which is becoming a power in local politics.

Stewart not only wants to be the official dog catcher of the town, but desires to sell the trustees a couple of lots, which he believes are especially fit for pound purposes. Like a wise man, he went to the women's club first.

Several rooms of paper and many pencils were used before the matter was settled. Then Stewart departed with the endorsement of the women of "Stewart for Poundman."

On Wednesday night, when the trustees met, the following letter from Stewart was read:

"I will accept the position of poundmaster, providing you furnish a building to keep the animals in. Animals cannot be readily impounded if there is no place to keep them. They would run away, and the poundmaster would have to catch them over again, which would cause considerable time. I will sell you two of my lots on Masonic avenue. They are the best lots in town for pound purposes."

"If you don't want to buy the lots, you can have the use of them for three years. If you will put an eight-foot fence around them, a building for the animals and run a gas main to the building, I want to use the gas to kill the animals as humanely as possible. I understand animals die quicker from gas than from human beings, although they don't use so much. After three years the lots and fence must revert to me. You can have the buildings and gas mains Respectfully,

ALVA STEWART."

A trustee Thompson moved that Stewart be appointed poundmaster. The Women's Club presented its endorsement, and Stewart was unanimously appointed. The trustees will settle at their next meeting whether to buy Stewart's lots or accept his terms for leasing them.

LATEST NEWS FROM OUTSIDE TOWNS

TRAIN DITCHED; WOMEN FAINT

Engineer and Fireman Remain in Cab and Escape Without Injury.

SAN LORENZO, Sept. 13.—A serious accident occurred here yesterday afternoon, when the engine and baggage car of the Stockton Southern Pacific local No. 131, left the tracks and pitched down an embankment. A number of women fainted and several passengers in the smoking car were slightly cut by flying glass. The accident occurred when the train was proceeding at a rapid speed. Engineer Loebe and his fireman remained in the cab and escaped without injury.

A hurry-up call was sent to the County Infirmary, and an ambulance and doctors went to the scene of the accident, but their help was not needed.

A wrecking crew in charge of Assistant Superintendent B. Ketchum of the Oakland division was rushed from the freight yards of that city, and, after three hours' work, succeeded in clearing the track, and traffic was resumed.

Conductor Hawkins secured rigs and automobiles and transported a number of the passengers from the wrecked train to the local terminals of the Oakland Traction Company, where they were taken into Oakland. Experts who have been investigating the accident have so far been unable to account for the engine leaving the tracks, unless a spreading of the rails was the source of trouble.

CLOSE WATCH IS KEPT ON CHINESE SMUGGLERS

RICHMOND, Sept. 13.—The Federal authorities of the Customs Service in San Francisco have requested Chief of Police Arnold of this city to keep close lookout on the local waterfront for any attempts that may be made during the next week to land Chinese here who have been smuggled to the coast on trans-Pacific liners. The Federal officers got a tip last night that an attempt was to be made to land a launch full of Chinese near Winehaven, and 'phoned Arnold and asked him to hasten to Winehaven and keep a watch there.

On investigation there, he found Chinese fishermen plying their trade, but no evidence of smugglers. This Arnold reported back to the officials, and they notified him that an attempt to land Chinese on the local shores around here might be made at any time and for him to keep up a patrol. Accordingly, arrangements have been made to keep a close watch day and night on all points where such a landing could be made and an immediate alarm at the central station here.

MANY SMALL THEFTS KEEP THE POLICE BUSY

RICHMOND, Sept. 13.—Small thefts and attempts at burglaries in various parts of this city during the present week has led the police force to double their efforts to gather up every suspicious character in the city and giving them short time to leave. It is the belief of Chief Arnold that a gang of petty thieves and porch climbers have been making Richmond headquarters temporarily for their operations, as none of the thefts reported are large, yet occur with regularity. Arnold thinks the gang is working here during the day as peddlers and solicitors, thus locating things to steal at night. All suspicious-looking people are being investigated, with the intention of driving them away or catching them at their depredations.

Mabel Greenhalgh of this city yesterday went out to use superior court against her husband for divorce, alleging cruelty.

According to the 1911 report of the Santa Fe, that company carried 244,369 passengers on its Richmond-San Francisco ferry during that year.

A delightful party in honor of Miss Jackson of St. Louis, Mississippi, was held last evening by Mrs. W. L. Ballenger, with whom she is visiting, the affair being an enjoyable social event.

Secretary D. A. Knowles of the Richmond board of trade has accepted the offer of twenty automobile owners for the use of their cars on September 22, at which time the city of Richmond will entertain the delegates to the convention of the California State League of Women.

A monster crowd is preparing to attend the dance and picnic of the Eagles drill team and drum corps at Grand Canyon park, Sunday.

An alarm was turned in at the Standard Oil Refinery last evening for a fire in one of the agitators, which was quickly extinguished by the fire department of that corporation. Little damage was done.

A big chase was initiated last evening by Olive Homestead, American Express.

BABY IS DROWNED IN OPEN CESSPOOL

STEGE, Sept. 13.—The 2-year-old son of Mrs. Adum of this place met a frightful death last night in a cesspool in the rear of the home of Constable Davis and the body was recovered this morning after an all night search. Just how the accident happened is not known, but the fact that the cover of the cesspool was not on was responsible. Phil Dren playing about the Davis yard are presumed to have left the cover off and the little lad, peering over the opening, probably lost his balance and fell to an awful death.

The child was missed last evening and search was instituted, but no traces of it could be found. The police of Richmond, Berkeley and Oakland were notified, as it was feared it might have been kidnapped. Searching parties were out nearly all night and finally came across the cesspool partially uncovered, and here the little body was found.

Mrs. Adum, mother of the child, is frantic with grief, and is feared will suffer a nervous collapse and breakdown. She is housekeeper for the Davis household. The body of the child was taken to the Smallwood undertaking parlors at Richmond, this morning, where arrangements for the funeral will be made.

RUSH PLANS FOR BIG COUNTY FAIR

Donation of $3000 Promised by the Board of Supervisors.

PLEASANTON, Sept. 12.—With the promise from the board of supervisors of $3000 to further the holding of the Alameda County Fair here in October, work on the various details have been given a "boost" and arrangements for the affair are being hurried along. Though the board has not taken any official action in the matter the donation has been promised and official action will be taken at the next meeting of the board.

On Official Day, October 28, District Attorney Donohue and Mayor Frank K. Mott of Oakland will speak. A feature of the activities will be a three-day horse racing meet. Races of $100 each will be offered in the various events. On October 26 a motorcycle race will be held. A baseball game between professional teams will also be arranged for.

It was announced this morning that October 26 will be known as Children's Day, when school children from Alameda and Contra Costa counties will be admitted to the fair free. Schools from both counties will arrange for exhibits of manual training and domestic science products besides specimens of copper work. Invitations to city officials of all communities in both counties will be sent by the executive committee requesting their presence on Official Day.

During the progress of the A. Marshall, superintendent of the State Farm at Davis, will deliver lectures on dairy and agricultural subjects. An effort will be made by F. H. Daniels, prominently connected with dairy interests in Alameda county, to have dairy exhibits used at the State Fair at Sacramento forwarded here. The best cattle exhibit will be in charge of William Bond of Newark.

IRELAND DECIDES NOT TO PROSECUTE

Fistic Encounter at St. Francis Hotel Will Be Given No Court Finale.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—W. B. Ireland of Berkeley appeared in Police Judge Shortall's court this morning and announced that he would not prosecute Alfred G. Rosenstirn, the young real estate broker, who resided in Alameda, and whom he charged with battery on Saturday night. Ireland informed the court that he and Rosenstirn had amicably adjusted their difficulties and that he would not swear to a complaint against him. It is understood that Mrs. Rosenstirn is ill and that her condition influenced Ireland in his action.

It is said that the St. Francis Hotel management has issued a ban against Rosenstirn because of the fracas which occurred in the dining-room on Saturday and resulted in the arrest of the young man and considerable excitement among the guests.

BEER TRUST IN AUSTRALIA.
SYDNEY, Australia, Sept. 13.—That the United States beer trust concerning which so much discussion has been on throughout the commonwealth during the past month, is about to commence operations in Australia, was stated here yesterday. The federal attorney-general, Mr. Hughes, says that so far as he knows the commonwealth has no power to grapple effectively with such a trust.

VOCATION STUDY URGED FOR CHILD

Parents Urged to Attend Lecture by Noted Boston Expert.

Meyer Bloomfield, director of Vocational Bureau of the city of Boston, an expert on the Vocational Guidance of Youth, will give a lecture under the auspices of the board of education in the Congregational church auditorium, on Tuesday evening, September 17, at 8 o'clock, on the subject of "Vocational Training." The public generally are invited to attend the lecture. No admission will be charged.

The board of education is particularly anxious that parents generally attend the lecture as the need of vocational work in Oakland's schools is becoming more and more apparent. Los Angeles has already adopted the plan with great success.

Vocational training consists in the employment of experts to study the aptitude of the child with reference to the various arts and professions and to assist in the development of those talents that become apparent.

WOMAN IN LEAD FOR STATE OFFICER

SEATTLE, Sept. 13.—Primary election returns received today show that Mrs. Josephine Preston of Walla Walla, Republican candidate for superintendent of public instruction, has carried nearly every county in the state and probably will be able to overcome S. E. Burrows' large majority in King county.

On the Democratic congressional ticket Charles Drury of Tacoma probably was nominated in the second district.

Roscoe E. Drumheller of Spokane was chosen in the third district. There is little doubt that E. O. Conner of Spokane and Henry White of Bellingham won the nominations at-large. Hugh C. Todd of Seattle is ahead in Eastern Washington in the Democratic governorship race and Ernest Lister of Tacoma leads on the west side. Second choice voters will decide, and it is unsafe to speculate on how these are bestowed.

BRYAN TO FOLLOW IN T. R.'S TRACKS

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—William Jennings Bryan notified Democratic headquarters here today that he would start tomorrow on a speaking tour of the Western States, following closely on the trail of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt. He will make the trip at his own expense.

ALLEGED AFFINITY BEATS ACCUSER

Clothing Dealer Charges Attack at the Steps of Synagogue.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—When Louis Marcus, a clothing dealer of 711 Howard street, left the William Wolf synagogue yesterday after attending services, and stepped to the sidewalk, he was greeted by an unusual solicitation, "Happy New Year." Before he had an opportunity to salute the well-wisher he was struck on the face, knocked down and kicked.

This morning he appeared before Police Judge Deary with his countenance swathed in bandages and procured a warrant for the arrest of Meyer Cohen whom he accuses of provoking the attack.

Marcus recently obtained a divorce from his wife and named Cohen as the correspondent instigator of trouble. Marcus attended to his religious duties yesterday and Cohen did likewise. The sight of the man who had brought his name before the public was too much for the latter, according to the clothing dealer, and the assault followed.

"There were eight of them," he said. "Cohen hit me while the other held me," and he exhibited his battered face to prove his statement.

REGULAR REPUBLICAN FORCES CLAIM VICTORY

DENVER, Sept. 13.—With returns from 8 small counties missing, the Taft Republican headquarters at 1 o'clock today issued a statement claiming the gubernatorial nomination in Tuesday's primaries for C. C. Peck by 1500 to 1000.

Stewart, Progressive, and a manager refused to admit defeat, saying it would take the official count to settle the contest.

AMBASSADORS GAVE CAMPAIGN FUNDS

Senate Committee Awaits the Request of Palmer to Probe Hill's Resignation.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—Chairman Clapp announced today that the Senate campaign expenditures committee is ready to extend its investigations into the realm of contributions to President Taft's 1908 campaign fund by applicants for ambassadorships.

Representative Mitchell Palmer of Pennsylvania makes formal requests that the committee look into the resignation of Dr. David Jayne Hill as Ambassador to Germany. In the records of the national committee for 1908, several contributions to the Taft 1908 fund by American foreign ministers and ambassadors were disclosed.

Lars E. Anderson, minister of Belgium, gave $25,000; Whitelaw Reid, Ambassador to Great Britain, $10,000; Robert Bacon, ambassador to France, $5000; Richard C. Kerpens, ambassador to Austria-Hungary, $1000.

Myron T. Herrick, now ambassador to France, was then chairman of the Ohio state committee and as such turned over to the national committee a total of $50,000 for the campaign.

ESTATE OF ANN MADDEN CONTESTED IN COURT

Contest over the estate of the late Ann Madden, who died on April 11 last, was filed today by Anna Greger, guardian of Annie Judge, an incompetent daughter of the deceased. Charges are made that J. J. Kenney and his wife, Mary Kenney, another daughter of Mrs. Madden, exerted undue influence over the aged woman shortly prior to her demise with the result that she cut off all but the children of her estate.

The complaint declares that not only was Mrs. Madden influenced, but that she was actually put under the mind at the time the will was drawn, to the extent that she could not write her signature. The residue of the estate, which is considerable, is left to John J. Jr., William M., Daniel W. Royal and Raymond Kenney, grandsons of the testatrix.

BABIES' HOSPITAL PLANS IN MAKING

Women in Charge of Project Form Permanent Organization.

The plans for a babies' hospital, in which a number of prominent women on this side of the bay have been interested, assumed definite form and a meeting held in the parlors of the First Congregational church, where a permanent organization was effected and the following officers elected:

The hospital will be for free as well as pay cases and will be open for the use of any respectable physician in Alameda county desiring its services. Only children under five years of age will be accepted. BANDIT HALTS TWO, GETS $140 AS LOOT

Masked Footpad Uses Revolver to Enforce Demands for Valuables.

Two men were held up and robbed last night by a band armed with a heavy revolver and wearing a mask. The holdup was shortly before midnight at H. Marshall, 2135 Twenty-first avenue, the second victim of the bandit was robbed of a watch and chain and money making a loss of $140. Frank Mvaki, 3141 Fifty-fifth street, was held up, but had nothing of value on his person.

Mvaki was stopped by the bandit about 10 o'clock last night in a dark alley near the Boulevard. The bandit, who was a tall man, armed with a heavy revolver of dark metal, ordered Mvaki to halt, and then searched his pockets.

About midnight Mvaki was held by the same bandit at Twenty-first avenue near Seventeenth street, and robbed. Both men reported the matter to the police, and a search was made. No trace of the band was found.

Will Wonders Never Cease? Taxes Refunded

FARGO, N. D., Sept. 13.—The city of Fargo has declared a dividend of 6 1/2 per cent, which will be paid in cash March 1, 1913. Mayor Sweet, in announcing the dividend, said: "Ten thousand dollars has been saved the city in the last year and we have decided to refund the surplus to taxpayers in proportion to their last assessment."

Your Child's Health Your First Thought

If you have children, naturally your first thoughts are for their health. You certainly want them to develop strong, healthy constitutions. The most careful attention must be given when children show the first symptoms of the many common ailments. Perhaps they are weakly and thin, or grow too fast, thus sacrificing strength. These and other apparently minor ailments may be the forerunner to a weak constitution for life. Such children need Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge, which is essentially a children's tonic. First of all, it will properly care for the child's stomach. It will also improve the appetite, and will add strength to the other organs of the body. In cases of thin or impure blood, it increases the number of red corpuscles, enabling the rich blood to keep the body healthy and strong. Among the most common ailments that children develop is that of a disordered stomach, leading to an impaired digestion. In many cases this trouble is due to parasites in the intestinal tract. To correct such trouble, Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge is unsurpassed. For more than eighty years millions of children have been restored to health through the use of this tonic. Inset upon Jayne's accept no other. Sold by druggists everywhere. Dr. D. Jayne & Son, Philadelphia, Pa.

MARITAL GRIEFS AIRED IN COURT

Divorces Are Granted on Various Pleas Made by the Discontented.

An opportunity to sing and dance in an Oakland cafe at a salary of $10 per week did not appeal to Sadie R. Neese when the offer was made by her husband, George J. Neese. The proposition did not please her and when he sat upon her chest when she refused, that ended marital relations. She obtained an interlocutory decree of divorce. Mrs. Neese testified that her husband was accustomed to return home at 6 o'clock, accompanied by other women in an automobile. She said she did not like the language heard on such occasions.
 Leo Brown got tired of living with his wife's parents following his marriage in San Rafael. He obtained an interlocutory decree of divorce from Edna Brown today. The complaints of the hard treatment accorded him by his father-in-law injured his health.
 Emil Rossie also was awarded preliminary separation of divorce on his complaint that Lena Rossie was never at their boarding house at meal time and that she ran around nights.
 Helen Peyson was granted a final decree from Joseph Peyson on the grounds of desertion.

Won Way to Heart Through Stomach

New York Cook Declares Her Employer Promised to Marry Her.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Mary Kedina's skill in preparing savory dishes so won the heart of wealthy Joseph Havlicek, whose cook she was, that he sought to retain her permanently in his home and therefore proposed marriage to her. Miss Kedina declares in a $15,000 suit for breach of promise which she has brought against her former employer here. Although her suit kept beliterating that he could never become completely happy without her, she avers, he never had time to get married, and therefore, when tired of waiting, she seeks legal redress.

ARMSTRONG IN EXCELLENT FORM

Result of the Morning Contest on the Links at Del Monte.

DEL MONTE, Cal., Sept. 13.—At the conclusion of the morning round of the Del Monte championship today E. S. Armstrong, of Midland, the present title holder, was three up on Jack Neville of Claremont, Pacific Coast champion. Armstrong played consistent, steady golf, particularly on the greens and in his tee shots, whereas Neville topped 60 per cent of his drives and was erratic, though brilliant, in his putting. The second half of the match will be concluded this afternoon.
 Edith Chesbrough of San Francisco defeated Mrs. Augustus Taylor in the semi-final round of the women's championship by 5 up and 4 to play. She will meet Mrs. A. R. Potter, who won from Miss Alice Hager by 2 up and 2 to play, for the title. Mrs. Potter has been playing brilliantly and is expected to give the champion a hard battle.
 In the defeated eighth Mrs. Walter Martin retired Miss Josephine Johnson.

Strikers Fire Stable and Battle With Militiamen

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Sept. 13.—The expected outbreak in the Cabin Creek district of the Kanawha coal field, where 1200 West Virginia militiamen, under command of Major James Pratt, are maintaining martial law, came today, when the stables of the Ohley Coal Company at Ohley were destroyed by fire and an attempt was made to fire the plant of the same company. Twenty-five militiamen from the Clarkburg company, under command of Lieutenant Cochran, drove off the strikers and it is believed that some were wounded. Lieutenant Cochran and his men fought the stable fire for half an hour, but the building had been fired at so many points that it was impossible to save it or its contents, including fourteen horses and mules.
 Letters found today in the offices of the Mackay Coal Company in the houses of a number of employees warned the company that if the mine was started or if the men attempted to go to work the buildings would be dynamited and the workings blown up. No effort had been made to start the mine.
 Governor Glasscock's commission investigating conditions in the Paint Creek and Cabin Creek sections returned today with a report that the situation was serious and that the company had been warned that if the mine was started or if the men attempted to go to work the buildings would be dynamited and the workings blown up. No effort had been made to start the mine.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 13.—As punishment for having beaten his five-year-old son with a length of garden hose, Charles Hoffman, a sign painter, stands today, by court order, deposed from his position as head of his household. The order was entered by Judge Willis of the juvenile court, who constituted Mrs. Hoffman legally head of the house. Hoffman was accused of having beaten the child severely. The boy was exhibited "A" in the case and after examining the boy's body the court told Hoffman he was not fit to be head of a family and then conferred that dignity upon Mrs. Hoffman.

SAN JOSE, Sept. 13.—The application for parole of Attorney Jackson Hatch, under sentence for seven years at San Quentin for having embezzled money from his client, Mrs. Sarah Stone, went over for one week in Superior Judge Welch's court this morning, as Hatch's attorney could not be present.

LAD HURT IN A FRIENDLY SCUFFLE

In a friendly scuffle in the manual training room of the Durant School today, Antonio Perry, one of the pupils, received a deep cut in the left wrist from a knife with which his companion, Charles Reichold, was sharpening a pencil. Dr. Dudley Smith was summoned from the medical college and took three stitches in the wound and bound up the arm. An investigation by Principal Dunbar disclosed the fact that the affair was entirely accidental and that was nothing but friendly feeling between the two boys. Perry is about 16 years of age.

SUFFRAGISTS MAY BE CLASSED 'UNDESIRABLE'

OTTAWA, Sept. 13.—There is a possibility that militant suffragettes who are coming to Canada to carry on a campaign may be refused entrance as undesirable. The suggestion has been made to the immigration department and if it is acted upon under the law they could be debarred owing to their announcement that they intended to make trouble and also on the ground that they have been convicted as criminals in England.

 Miss Mary Cunningham, who accompanied Miss Sarah Cunningham eastward, is in Detroit, where she is visiting at the home of her uncle, Mr. William Jerry Chittenden.
 Miss Elizabeth Cunningham's friends will be glad to know that she is recovering rapidly from the illness that has confined her to her room for the past two weeks and will be out in a day or two.
 Nearly a score of bridge enthusiasts accepted the hospitality of Miss Hannah Du Bois at a party yesterday at her home in Broadway.
 Miss Emily Du Bois assisted her sister in welcoming the guests, among whom were Mrs. Alan MacDonald, Mrs. Dolly MacGowan, Mrs. J. J. Talbot, Mrs. Melvin Platt, Mrs. Howell King, Mrs. Eldridge Green, Mrs. Harry Williams, Mrs. Dorothy Wagon, Mrs. Marian Angelotti, Miss Joyce Wilson, Miss Olive Craig, Miss Cora Smith, Miss Marie Bulford, Miss Elizabeth Bruce, Miss Rhoda Keating, Miss Louise Kellogg, Miss Helen Boss and Miss Gladys Jones.

 Another attractive belle who has appeared on the scene is Miss Jeanette Del Monte is Miss Jane Hotelling, who is with her mother, Mrs. Ella K. Hotelling. Miss Hotelling, who has spent the past year abroad, will probably make her formal bow at a large ball this winter.

THE FIRST GRAY HAIR SIGN OF AGE. DON'T LOOK OLD BEFORE YOUR TIME

Easy Way to Preserve Natural Color of the Hair and Make It Grow.
 A harmless remedy, made from common garden sage, quickly restores gray hair to natural color. The care of the hair, to prevent it from losing its color and lustre, is just as important as to care for teeth to keep them from discoloring. Why spend money for cosmetics and creams to improve the complexion and yet neglect your hair, when gray hair is even more conspicuous and suggestive of age than wrinkles or a poor complexion. All that is necessary is the occasional use of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of common garden Sage and Sulphur, combined with other valuable remedies for dry, harsh, faded hair, dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair. A bottle costs a little, but will make it grow as Nature intended it should. Don't neglect your hair, for it goes further than anything else to make or mar your good looks. You can buy this remedy at any drug store for fifty cents a bottle, and your druggist will give you money back if you are not satisfied after using. Purchase a bottle today. You will never regret it when you realize the difference it will make in your appearance. Agents, The Owl Drug Store.

News That Crop in Germany

Was Suffering Has Good Effect.

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—Wheat prices rose today in response to statements that the growing crop in Germany was suffering severely from unfavorable weather. Official reports estimated the Prussian yield at 3,000,000 bushels less than last year. World came also that Argentine crops were decreasing. The opening was unchanged to 1/2c up, December started at 90 1/2c to 90 3/4c, a gain of 1/2c to 3/4c, and September at 87 1/2c to 88 1/4c, a gain of 1/2c to 3/4c.

Rain stopping threshers in North Dakota and interfering with the Canadian harvesting led to an additional return.

Smallness of offerings made the corn market bumpy. December opened a shade to 1/4c higher at 71 1/2c to 71 3/4c and climbed to 72 1/2c, 72 3/4c.

Wheat strength kept the market firm. The close was 1/2c to 3/4c up, but gain of 1/2c to 3/4c.
